A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

JANUARY 3, 2010

Can We Ever Be Comfortable With Change?

First of all, may God bless you in this New Year as you seek to know and do His will.

Secondly, as we look forward to two thousand ten, we need to recognize that the New Year always bring changes. This is especially true when we consider growth both spiritually and numerically. In the process of growth there is always some pain and decisions that will have to be made as to what we should change and what should remain the same.

Most of us are uncomfortable with change but are comfortable with some of the changes that it brings; for instance — indoor plumbing. Sometimes it goes the other way though; for instance — security procedures at court houses and airports.

But in looking to the future are YOU prepared for change? If Judgment Day comes, for instance are you ready? If you aren't, and you want to get prepared, we can help you get prepared at Warners Chapel church of Christ. No, I didn't say Judgment Day would come this year; I said, we can help you get prepared if it does come — or doesn't. Either way, it's a change you can be comfortable with and the changes it will bring.

—Frank

ELDERS CORNER:

Another letter from a graduate of ZSOBS stating his plans when he returns home.

My name is Diwell Kambobe. I live in the copperbelt, Kitwe, Chimwemwe township.

We are four in our family, three girls and one boy that is me. My Dad passed away when I was just five years of age and I'm staying with my Mother. Two of my three sisters are Christians except one.

Our congregation is in the local area where I live, but it is located at a school where we just pay rentals. We have evening prayers every Wednesdays and bible studies every Saturday not at school, but in the homes of every member. Our congregation has four elders.

I plan on serving my Lord the rest of my life as long as I live for I know that He requires me to work and serve Him in the Kingdom. I plan to save and convert many souls to my Lord as a commission He has given me to do and expand His Kingdom.

As for the congregation (Lord's body) I plan to help them in many areas with the knowledge that I have now gained. Areas such as visitation, evangelism and helping one another in matters of doctrine. I would like to see our congregation growing both spiritually and physically in number and I also plan to make sure that every member is devoted to the Lord's work. And last I would like to see that we have our own church building.
