What think ye? Should it not average $150. If we gave God as much as we use for ourselves, I feel sure that it would. But, even at the present average, we can, and will do much work. God help us to see the need of spreading the Gospel in other communities.

I am persuaded to believe that the meeting just closed has been an inspiration to all of us. The preaching was unexcelled. Power and force was used. The lessons were beyond question as fine as ever presented. And allow me to say that a more Godly man cannot be found than your brother and mine, Brother McElroy. Practical teaching is weighty, and Jack is certainly a practical man. We pray that God shall bless him with health and ripe old age and that his coming to us again in 1952 will prove to be even a greater blessing than his visit with us this year.

We have placed a man at Boone to work with the Brethren there and at Tamarack. He will also help the brethren, at North Wilkesboro. He is a Brother Walker from Nicholasville, Ky. He comes very highly recommended and we believe that much good will be done through his efforts. Let us remember to pray for he and his family.

We closed the meeting at North Wilkesboro Wednesday PM Oct. 5. The crowds were very small but interest was good. This is new and strange doctrine to those folk in that section. However, I am quite sure that good was done. The seed has been sown and we leave the rest to God. He will give the increase. One was baptized. Some of you were encouraging, your presence strengthened the brethren there and was certainly an inspiration to me. Several came over from Statesville.

We wish to extend to all who are not attending the classes on Sunday Morning a very cordial invitation to come. I am quite sure that none are beyond learning. We have classes for all ages and feel that the teachers are in every way competent. You are at liberty to make a choice as to what class you want to go in. We have very good attendance at present but hope to see the work grow. We need your help and you need ours and God needs us all. But above all we need him most. So come.

You Don't Have to Tell It.

You don't have to tell how you live each day,
You don't have to say if you work or you play;
A tried true barometer serves in the place---
However you live, it will show in your face.

The false, the deceit, that you bear in your heart
Will not stay inside where it first got the start;
For sinew and blood are thin veil of lace---
What you wear in your heart, you wear in your face.

If you have fought and won the great game of life,
If you feel you have conquered the sorrow and strife,

If you've played the game fair and you stand on first base----

What you wear in your heart, you wear in your face.

If your life is unselfish, if for others you live,
For not what you get, but how much you can give;
If you live close to God in his infinite grace----
You don't have to tell it, it shows in your face!

Selected.

"A man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and the boldness of face shall be changed." Eccl. 8:1

The purpose of every good institution in the world is to get people to think right. It is impossible for any one to go wrong when his thoughts are right. Hence the divine injunction: "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." The robber, the thief, the killer all go wrong by wrong thinking. After the mind has become criminal the body sets to work to commit the crime. "As he thinketh in his heart, so is he." For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornication, thefts, false witness, blasphemies. "But why fill the mind with low, sordid, vulgar, vicious things when there are so many good things to feast upon? Hear inspiration again: "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, if there be any praise, think on these things." This is the consummation of all true education. Everything else is secondary. This is the only cure for all evils. Can we control our thoughts? We may not be able to prevent the birds flying over our heads, but we can keep them from building nests in our hair. Thoughts make character. If you lack character, you have nothing the world needs. These thoughts work out. They show in our very person. Do you believe in physiognomy? That is, one who is able to discover mental traits from facial expressions. This is the intention of the above poem.

Remember the radio broadcast at 9:30. Station. W T O B. 1480 on your dial. Come to all the services next week. A very hearty welcome awaits you.
