“THE REMOVAL OF DREAD”

Can you remember as a child doing something wrong and then dreading your mother and father finding out about it? That thought may have even produced tears as you contemplated their displeasure over learning what you had done. You may have thought they wouldn't love you anymore. “How could they?” you may have asked yourself. But then came the overwhelming relief and joy of finding out that, in spite of the punishment the so-called “crime” might have deserved, your parents still loved you.

How typical this is of the love of God. He loves us in spite of our sins. It was for our sins that He gave His only Son to die in our place. But God does require that we turn away from the practice of sin and give Him the best we can give in a loving obedience to His will. That includes the alien sinner as well as the erring Christian.

We can't live just as we please and be pleasing to God. Want to remove the dread from your life? Come learn how at the Warners Chapel church of Christ.

Article VII

“Slow and Steady Wins the Race”

Proverbs 21:5 teaches us a very important principle on saving and investing: “The plans of the diligent lead surely to plenty, But those of everyone who is hasty, surely to poverty” (NKJV). It is wise to save, as Proverbs 21:20 teaches: “There is desirable treasure, And oil in the dwelling of the wise, But a foolish man squanders it” (NKJV). Two examples in the Bible illustrate this slow and steady savings concept. Joseph saved during the seven years of prosperity to ensure that there was enough food during the seven years of famine. The little ant is another example of a wise and steady investor: “Go to the ant, you sluggard! Consider her ways and be wise, 7 Which, having no captain, Overseer or ruler,8 Provides her supplies in the summer, And gathers her food in the harvest. 9 How long will you slumber, O sluggard? When will you rise from your sleep? 10 A little sleep, a little slumber, A little folding of the hands to sleep—11 So shall your poverty come on you like a prowler, And your need like an armed man” (Proverbs 6:6-11, NKJV).

How, then, are we to save? There are two primary places to direct our savings: to the Lord and to ourselves. Our first check should be a gift to the Lord, and our second check should be a gift to ourselves ... week after week, month after month, year after year. “Slow and steady wins the race.”

OUR SICK Please Remember In Your Prayers

Atha Clark continues to recover from her recent bout with pneumonia and is able to attend services again.

Marsha Singh will enter the Forsyth Medical Hospital on November 13th for surgery. Please remember her in your prayers.

D.J. Harrison continues to have back pain problems.

Update on Emily Workman's uncle, Bobby Pate (who was severely injured several months ago in a motorcycle accident). He was previously diagnosed with cancer but that diagnosis has been reversed.

The Prayer List is available on the credenza in the foyer.

~Thank You~

Tim Harper would like to say "thank you" for the prayers and other expressions of concern during the recent months.

Does Bible School Really Matter?

A well-known preacher of Atlanta was asked to speak at a prison camp. The prisoner who introduced the preacher said: "Several years ago, two boys lived in the same community in North Georgia, attended the same school, played with the same boys, and went to the same Sunday school.

One boy dropped out of Sunday school because he felt he had outgrown it and felt it was "sissy stuff". The other boy kept on going, because he felt it meant something in his life.

The boy who dropped out of Sunday school is now making this introduction and the boy who kept going is the famous preacher who will speak to us at this time."
