JOHNSON MOVING FIRST OF DECEMBER

The congregation has granted Bro. Johnson's request that he be released the first of December. He and his family plan to leave around the 28th of this month.

He will start his work with the Church in Tahlequah the first Lord's Day in December.

WEDNESDAY EVENING SCHOLARS

There were seven in the Wednesday evening Bible Class that averaged 90 or over in the study of the Roman Letter, having answered all the sets of questions. There were others who averaged over 90, but they did not hand in all the sets of questions.

Those who handed in all the sets and averaged over 90 are:

Eula Harper.....	96.1
Ida Pogram.....	94.7
Mary Harper.....	93.9
Nelle Harper.....	92.6
Eva Nelle Harper.....	92.1
Helen Warner.....	91.9
Mildred Warner.....	90.7

Congratulations, Students!

SUNDAY

CHANGE OF TIME

We have been having our Sunday evening service at 7:30. Beginning next Lord's Day evening (Nov. 13th) the services will begin at 7:00.

Don't forget this change and BE ON TIME!

NEW STUDY IN I CORINTHIANS

The Wednesday Evening Bible Study Class has begun another study, having finished the book of Romans last week.

They began the lessons on the first book of Corinthians tonight. They will be studied with the same system as usual the question and answer method. You should be in this class. So why not get your questions next Lord's Day, answer them and attend the class next Wednesday evening.

We believe you will enjoy the class.

WATSON TO PREACH FOURTH SUNDAY

Bro. Paul Watson of Wayne, Michigan will be with us the fourth Sunday (November 27th) of this month.

More announcements will be made relative to his coming.
