The Sick List.

Sister Dot Pegram was confined to her bed again for a few days, but her condition seems to be slowly improving at present. If you know of others of our number who are ill, won't you please report it to the elders? It will help very much in keeping the news for the "Sick List," up to date.

There was a sharp decrease in the number present for worship last Lord's day. Let us ask ourselves: Could it be that I am more concerned with the affairs of the world, than my duty to God? It is good to remember the admonition in Matt. 6:33.

Ten Commandments for Church Attendance

1. Thou shalt not come to service late,
Nor for the "amen" refuse to wait.
2. Thy noisy tongue thou shalt restrain,
When speaks the earnest "Prayer" so plain.
3. When hymns are sung unto the Lord,
Thou shalt sing out in one accord.
4. The endmost seats thou shalt leave free,
For more to share the pew with thee.
5. The offering plate thou shalt not fear,
But give thine uttermost with cheer.
6. Thou shalt the bulletin peruse,
And look there for the late church news.
7. Thou shalt unto the speaker heed,
Nor blame him when thou'rt disagreed.
8. Unto thy neighbor thou shalt bend,
And, if a stranger, make a friend.
9. Thou shalt in every way be kind,
Compassionate, of tender mind.
10. And so by all thy spirit's grace,
Thou shalt praise God within this place.

Quitting.

Not infrequently we hear others, or think ourselves, of "giving up" our Bible class or some other responsibility.

lity which we have accepted as a service to the Lord. Before you "quit," think these questions over seriously: (1) Is it the Lord's will for me to quit this labor? After all, my responsibility is to him. (2) Where would I be if the one who told me of Christ had "quit" just before he led me to Him? (3) How would the Lord's work prosper if every other Christian took the same attitude toward his or her service for Christ? (4) What will I say to Christ when I stand before him? "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ." (2 Cor. 5:10.) Tired? "Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is he weary? there is no searching of his understanding. He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint." (Isaiah 40: 28-31.)

Living The Way We Pray

I knelt to pray when day was done,
And prayed: "O Lord, bless everyone;
Lift from each heart the pain,
And let the sick be well again."
And then I woke one day,
And carelessly went on my way.
The whole day long I did not try
To wipe a tear from any eye.
I did not try to share the load
Of any brother on the road;
I did not even go to see
The sick man just next door to me.
Yet once again when day was done
I prayed; "O Lord, bless everyone."
But as I prayed, to my ear
There came a voice that whispered clear:
"Pause, hypocrite, before you pray;
Whom have you tried to bless today,
"God's sweetest blessings always go
By hands that serve him here below."
And then I hid my face and cried;
"Forgive me, God, for I have lied;
Let me live but another day,
And I will live the way I pray."--Author Unknown.

The Planned Fruition.

"Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ; And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ: To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heaven and places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God, According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Eph. 3:8-11.)

Sister Mollie Warner has not been feeling well for some time, and I am sure would ~~xxx~~ enjoy having visitors.
