A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

August 1, 2010

“Giddy up Mule!”

Dudley Cockrum’s dad had a pair of mules named Jake and John. The Cockrums went to church about three quarters of a mile from their house every Sunday. Dudley, and his brother, Lester, went in a two-seat surrey pulled by Jake and John. Before church Dudley and Lester would do their chores and then hitch the surrey to the mules and the mules would walk across the road to two trees where they were used to being tied until time to go.

Sometimes Dudley would forget to tie them to the tree and would go in the house and get ready to go to worship. He and Lester would walk outside and the mules and surrey would be gone. Jake and John would go to the church building where Dudley’s dad always tied them up.

Jake and John never did that on a Saturday, and they never did it hitched to a wagon; only on Sunday with a two-seat surrey. Jake and John, two mules, learned to go to Bible study and worship. If two mules could make it to the church building on Sunday – couldn’t you? Bible study is at 10:00 a.m. and worship is at 10:50 a.m. Evening worship is at 6:00 p.m. Wednesday Bible study is at 7:00 p.m. Giddy up mule!
