Jesus: The Politically Incorrect Evangelist

(John 4)

By Rob L. Whitacre

Jesus did not let culture close door to Souls.

Jesus overcame fatigue.

Jesus began by engaging in friendly conversation.

Jesus chose a time when others were not around.

Jesus was not put off by potentially offensive statements.

Jesus offered her something more than she had.

Jesus had to point her in the right direction.

Jesus did not ignore sins that potentially could close the door.

Jesus emphasized sincerity and truth.

Jesus identified the savior.

Jesus used one contact to lead to many others.

Jesus took advantage of a spiritual opportunity at the cost of physical loss.

Jesus believed that there are always Souls ready for Harvest.

Jesus also joy in the future of both the soul winner and the Soul won.

He recognized that some conversions require time and more than one teacher.

Jesus rearranged His schedule when Souls were at stake.

Jesus knew that one person cannot reach all types of people and that a team is more effective.

“Bless the LORD”

The term, “bless” is often used in the sense of praise, honor, and worship in the book of Psalms. The English translation of “LORD” in all capital letters indicates a translation of the Hebrew name YHWH for God. This name indicates God’s eternal nature. Notice some of the passage below that contain the phrase, “bless the LORD.”

“Bless the LORD, O my soul; and all that is with me, bless His holy name! Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits: Who forgives all your iniquities...(Psalm 103:1-3).”

“Bless the LORD, you His angels, who excel in strength, who do His word, heeding the voice of His word. Bless the LORD, all you His hosts, you ministers of His, who do His pleasure. Bless the LORD, all His works, in all places of His dominion. Bless the LORD, O my soul (Psalm 103:22).”

“Bless the LORD, O my soul! O LORD my god, You are very great: You are clothed with honor and majesty (Psalm 104:1).”

“Bless the LORD, all you servants of the LORD, who by night stand in the house of the LORD! Lift up your hands in the sanctuary and bless the LORD! The LORD who made heaven and earth bless you from Zion (Psalm 134:1-3).”

“You who fear the LORD, bless the LORD...praise the LORD (Psalm 135:20-21)!”

Psalm 104:35 says, “Bless the LORD, O my soul! Praise the LORD!” In the New King James Version. We discussed the meaning of the phrase “bless the LORD” at the beginning of this article. Now consider the expression “praise the LORD” as found in this verse. It is the Hebrew word that is often translated “hallelujah.” “Hallelujah” means, “praise the LORD!” Let us praise the LORD from a joyful heart of gratitude for who He is, for all He has done for us, and for all He has promised to do! “Bless the Lord, O my soul!” “Hallelujah!”
