We had an average of 150.08 for the month of Sept. Bank robbery when apprehended and convicted carries a very long term in the penitentiary. Robbing heaven's bank, everlasting damnation. Let us take warning brethren.

Thou art weighed in the balance and found wanting. This was said of King Belshazzar by the Prophet Daniel. See reference. Dan. 5: 25-27. Belshazzar had profaned the holy vessels of the Temple. Drunk and engaging in that which was unholy by way of a feast. And Lo, he sees a hand writing on the wall. He is terribly disturbed over the matter and calls for Daniel to interpret what was written. One of the meanings was, as above. Thou art weighed in the balance and found wanting. How sad to be weighed and found wanting. Suppose the Lord should weigh my influence. Would I be found wanting? Jesus has said of his children, Matt. 5:13, 14. Ye are the salt of the earth; but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? It is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. Ye are the light of the world. A city set on a hill can not be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light SO SHINE before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Not only shall my influence be weighed but, my conversation shall be weighed. How will it weigh? Shall I be found wanting here? Read Ps. 50:23. Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me; and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation of God. Phil. 1:27. Let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ; 1st. Tim. 4:12. We read, Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in CONVERSATION, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. Lot vexed his righteous soul by seeing, and hearing the conversation of those wicked men of Sodom and Gomorrah. 2nd. Pet. 2:7, 8. So I need to watch my conversation, lest it be weighed and I be found wanting. Paul says, Phil. 3:20. For our conversation is in heaven; from whence we also look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. Suppose he should weigh my attendance at service. Hebr. 10:25. Not forsaking the assembling of yourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another; and so much the more as ye see the day approaching. Read on through the 39th verse. Will he be sad for me, should I be weighed and found wanting. There will be no excuse to offer. So, it behooves me to be ready for the scales, or balances. But, suppose he should weigh my contributions? Will I be found wanting in this? I know I should give. 1st. Cor. 16:1, 2. I, in like manner know how I should give. 2nd. Cor. 9:7. And I also the day that I should give. 1st. Cor. 16:1. Will I be weighed and found wanting? God help me not to be found wanting in anythings. Friends these thoughts are worth your consideration, as well as mine. Let us daily examine our life. We know, as to whether we are giving short weight in these things. The balances of God is sure to show us up. 1st. Cor. 8:5 will help us to overcome We regret very much to lose Brother George Ridings. The Army got him. We hope that it won't be too long before he can be out, and back at home in the Church exerting all his influence for the Master. Good Luck, Brother George. Friends you responded in a wonderful way, in regards to the shipment of clothing to the orphan home. We had a very nice assortment of clothing. Somewhere in the neighborhood of one hundred pounds. Lots of good usable merchandise. God will bless you for this good work. Jesus told his disciples, Mark 9:41. For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward. Sister Edna Binkley and Sister Nelle Harper helped us get it packed. Brother John will supply the truck to haul it to the express office and the children will soon have some brand new garments made from those we had out grown. Isn't this wonderful?

A Christian is,
A mind through which Christ thinks. A heart through which Christ loves. A voice through which Christ speaks, and a hand through which Christ helps.

I'll put Jesus First.
The world all about me now has no allure,
Its pleasures bring pain. Its wisdom is vain,
I seek a foundation that's steadfast and sure;
I'll put Jesus first in my life.
The Lord Jesus died my salvation to win,
He went in my stead, to Calv'ry and bled
Redemption impels me to give up all sin;
I'll put Jesus first in my life.
Tho' earth's tribulations continue each day,
Tho' pleasures may call, Tho' evil enthrall,
His grace will protect me forever and aye;
I'll put Jesus first in my life.
In all that I say, in all that I do
Throughout this world of toil and strife;
By day and by night, Through trust in his might,
I'll put Jesus first in my life.
