“OUTRUN THE DEVIL”

A columnist once wrote, “Every morning in Africa, a gazelle wakes up knowing it must run faster than the fastest lion or it will be killed. Every morning a lion wakes up knowing it must outrun the slowest gazelle, or it will starve to death. It doesn’t matter whether you are a lion or a gazelle; when the sun comes up, you’d better be running.”

*There’s another deadly, daily drama that involves all of us. Every day the devil determines to run you down and destroy your soul forever. Peter described him as “a roaring lion waking about seeking whom he may devour.” But Peter also tells us how to outrun that lion. “...resist him, steadfast in the faith.” 1 Peter 5:9.

Unless you obey the gospel of Christ and are in the faith, the “drama” will end in eternal tragedy for you. Being a Christian doesn’t mean you won’t ever have to deal with that old lion and running again, but it does mean you’ll have a way to outrun him and keep your soul.

Frank

ELDERS CORNER:

The Devil's Beatitudes

If the devil were to write his version of "The Beatitudes" in contrast to Matthew 5, it would probably say something like this:

1. Blessed are those who are too tired, too busy, to distracted to spend an hour or two once a week with their fellow Christians — they are my best workers.
2. Blessed are those Christians who wait to be asked and expect to be thanked — I can use them.
3. Blessed are the touchy who stop going to church — they are my missionaries.
4. Blessed are the trouble makers — they shall be called my children.
5. Blessed are the complainers — I am all ears to them.
6. Blessed are those who are bored with the minister's mannerism and mistakes — for they get nothing out of his sermons.
7. Blessed is the church member who expects to be invited to his own church — for he is part of the problem instead of the solution.
8. Blessed are those who gossip — for they shall cause strife and divisions that please me.
9. Blessed are those who are easily offended — for they will soon get angry and quit.
10. Blessed are those who do not give their tithes and offerings to carry on the work of the Kingdom of God — for they are my helpers.
11. Blessed is he who professes to love God, but hates his brother and sister — for he shall be with me forever.
12. Blessed are those who don't study the Word of God — for in their lack of knowledge, I have strength.
13. Blessed are you who, when you read this, think it's about other people, and not yourself — I've got you too!
