NEW BULLETINS

Finally we have them! We would like to send these little papers to all people who might have an interest in the church at Warner's Chapel. If you should know of anyone who might like to receive it in the mail, hand his name and address to Brother Beard as soon as possible.

CHANGE OF TIME

Beginning April 6, the Sunday evening services will begin at 7:30 p. m. instead of 7 p. m. Please keep this in mind and remind others of it. Disregard the time set on the cover.

CAN YOU FIND YOURSELF?

The preacher or teacher is in a position to see scenes like this many times, but more important, the Lord sees also! We ought to remember what Paul said to Timothy; "..behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God". Again, he said to the Corinthian brethren, "Let all things be done in decency and in order." (I Cor. 14:40)

Parents, bring something else for the baby to play with. The song books are to use in the song service, not for tearing up and marking up! It's also a good idea to keep the older children in sight. The temptation to "act up" on the back seat is great.

The older ones should watch their behavior also. Remember, you are here to worship God and to commemorate the death of Christ.
