YOU ARE WELCOME AT OUR SERVICES

IN MEMORIAM

Deepest sympathy is extended to Sister McRee and family in the passing of Brother F. J. McRee Thursday morning. Brother McRee was five years past the Bible allotment of three score years and ten. For several years as an elder worthy of his office, he helped guide the congregation, retiring only recently due to advanced years.

Scarcely has there been anywhere the blessing of example and fellowship as in Brother and Sister McRee: wisdom, devotion and godliness made mellow through age patient in tribulation, rejoicing in hope, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord.

Memories of the warm hospitality of their home, of rich welcome to strangers, of counsel for seeking of consolation to the sorrowing--all these and more remind us of the great debt this congregation will eternally owe to Brother McRee and his Godly wife.

In spite of declining years with their infirmities, in spite of recurring attacks of a failing heart, Brother McRee was "as his custom was" in the house of the Lord last Sunday.

Only death itself can still such faith and fervor, and yet not even death can do that.

(Rev.) 14:13 Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord, from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them.

(Rev.) 7:17 and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

The Memoriam was written by Harold C. Key who preaches for the Lamar-Parkway congregation - Church of Christ, Memphis, Tennessee.

The manner of ones life while he lives shall determine what may be said of him at death. (Heb. 11:4) By Faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts; and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

Influence is a never dying principle. Let us pray God that it may be truthfully said of us while living, we lived soberly, righteously, and Godly in this world.

THE WEDNESDAY EVENING STUDY

We had one of the most encouraging crowds I have seen yet present with us for this period of Bible Study. I know we are enjoying it. Everyone seems greatly interested. Friends, it is at the Bible Study that you have the privilege of asking questions. And, in like manner, you can make correction for anything that is out of line. We all need teaching. So try and come on the next meeting night. You are missed. We need you, and you need us. And, once you get started you won't want to stay away. We will be looking for you 7:30 PM Wednesday, May 31.

THE LADIES CLASS--2:00 P.M. WEDNESDAY

We had nine present. This is mighty fine to start with. Now if all will come, who possibly can, we will probably have twenty next Wednesday. Make plans to attend this study. We are not going to be satisfied until we get you to come. We are there for about an hour--So you have plenty of time to get home and prepare your supper. We shall be looking forward to seeing you.

We are about to begin the work at North Wilkesboro. The Brethern over there have arranged for us to meet in the Presbyterian meeting house. Now this work will have to be supported with your presence. The struggle will be a hard one, but let us remember and say as did the Apostle Paul, "I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me". Phil. 4:13. This is quite a long trip, but if you will double up in the cars (I mean of course) Put as many in one car as you can, and all come who can, we will get off to a good start. It is not our intention to burden anyone but the Elders heartily agree that this work should be done. So let's join hands and hearts with them and do our best to do the job.

Remember, the second Saturday in June is the day set for the cleaning off of the lot next to the Church building. All who possibly can come along and lets get this job done. Shouldn't take more than two hours.

Sister Mildred Warner, is away on vacation. I believe that she is down on the coast. Mighty good place to spend a vacation. Remember, that John the Baptist, baptized in Aenon near to Salim.

because there was much water there, and they came and were baptized. John 3:23. And I am sure there is much water where Mildred is vacationing. You know, you never can tell just what some folks have in mind. Can you? Well, anyway, we hope that she has an enjoyable vacation. We missed her at the Wednesday evening service.

The Bible teaches, That a child of God can fall from grace. Note (1) Man is saved by grace. Eph. 2:8. (2) A Christian may fall away from grace. (Gal. 5:4) (3) Therefore, a Christian may be lost. Legions are they, who deny this. Believers may sin and be in danger of death. My Brethern, if any among you err from the truth and one convert him; let him know; that he who converteth a sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall cover a multitude of sins. Jas. 2:1. Only such are in danger of death because the unbelievers are already dead, Eph. 2:1-5. Yes, a child of God can lie, and die in that condition, and certainly, he will be lost. Ananias and Sapphira did.. Acts 5:1-11 and we are shown the fate of such, Rev. 21-8. And all liars shall have their part in the lake that burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. Hence a child of God can so sin, as to be lost. It is either possible for a child of God to be lost or it is impossible for a child of God to ever taste death, under certain conditions. No drunkard "shall inherit the kingdom of God" 1st Cor. 6:10. Can a child of God get drunk? Answer, Yes. But some teach that God will not allow him to die in that condition. If that were true, a Christian could get drunk and stay drunk and never would die ~~but would live if re vat~~ right here on this earth. If a child of God cannot be lost, the devil is a fool. He has been laboring for about six thousand years to damn the souls of the children of God; and if he has never succeeded in damning the soul of just one child of God, he is a simpleton for continuing. Paul says, Heb. 3:12.... Take heed Brethern, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.... Peter says, Add. 2nd Peter 1:5-11 To faith add virtue.... KNOWLEDGE, temperance, patience, Godliness, brotherly kindness, charity. If you do these things ye shall never fall. God offers no encouragement for us to sin.
