The Way Of The Righteous

In the Bible, we read of a path that is needing to be chosen by those who want to live godly towards God. This way is known as Righteousness. You see this path mentioned in verses like Matthew 5:6 and Romans 1:17. But what is this way and what does it require? In Psalm 1, the psalmist speaks of this path and the choices that it requires. Let's look at Psalm 1:1-2.

Psalm 1:1–2
1 Blessed is the man Who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, Nor stands in the path of sinners, Nor sits in the seat of the scornful; 2 But his delight is in the law of the Lord, And in His law he meditates day and night.

The first thing it mentions is that we are not to walk in the council of the ungodly. What does this mean? When you read the word walk in our Bibles, it means a lifestyle; the way that you live your life. It is important to notice that he mentions the walk of life that we are NOT to live by and that is under the council of the ungodly. This means that we are not to listen to or be guided by those who are not godly. We are to only take advice and guidance from those who have our hearts, soul, and mind in consideration. We don't need to be influenced, counseled, or instructed by those that are in the world, whether they be on TV, social media, or in magazines. We need to be guided by the Word of God (which he is going to speak about in verse 2). This choice takes a focus within ourselves on what we desire to do and to follow.

Secondly, he mentions that we are not to stand in the path of sinners. This means that this person is conscientious about where he is standing. Is he on the same path as sinners or is he with the godly? We must always be careful as to where we are standing because who we stand with will reflect on who we are grouped with. It will also affect, not only our influence but also what choices we will make. Do we want to be found to be good and doing good or do we want to be found to be wrong and doing wrong? The righteous man DOES NOT choose to be found in the path of sinners.

Thirdly, he mentions that we are not to sit in the seat of the scornful. The word scornful means to speak boastfully and mockingly. It means belittling the work of others and criticizing their mistakes. Righteous people don't do this. They realize that they are the same as anyone else and they are subject to the same as anyone else. The Bible speaks a lot about how we are to speak in an encouraging way to others (Col. 4:6, Jms. 3:3-12, etc.). We must be very careful as to whom we associate ourselves with because those same individuals will affect our outlook on ourselves and others (1 Cor. 15:33).

Fourthly, He mentions that he delights in the law of the Lord and meditates in it day and night. The righteous person will look to be guided by God and God alone. This person knows that God will never lead them in a wrong way and that the way of God is what will lead us to Heaven. The word delight means a high degree of gratification. This is something that he esteems higher than others. He delights in it so much that he meditates in it day and night. This means that he carefully examines and carefully thinks through constantly the word of God. Can this be said of us? Does the word of God drive our way of life including everything that we do?

Are we found to be seeking the righteous path or the path of sinners?
We choose!
