SUMMER SERIES 2015

Again, the Elders have asked me to organize a Summer Series to enrich the learning and understanding of Holy Scripture. These men have been selected to provide the church an opportunity to tap a wide variety of experience and knowledge. I have asked each of them to dig deep and expose truths that go beyond a general understanding of each Bible character in order that we may learn from the past and be equipped to apply this information and look to the future.

Think about it . . .

"If I do not know that Jesus of Nazareth rose from the dead, then I know nothing in the history of mankind. If the evidence, when fully examined with a calm willingness to be convinced, does not in this case warrant a practical certainty, then there is no adequate evidence of any historical event."

John Broadus, Jesus of Nazareth, page 84
