KIMEL SPEAKS SUNDAY

Bro. Francis Kimel will deliver the message at the morning service in the absence of Bro. Johnson. Bro. Kimel has an excellent speaking voice and with his well rounded Bible knowledge, is expected to bring an inspiring message. Be sure and give him your cooperation.

NORMAN DAVIDSON'S ARTICLE

Recently an article entitled "A Christian Business Man Writes His Brethren" has fallen into the hands of many of you. The writer is a Norman Davidson of Chicago, Illinois. Though on the surface it seems to be a wonderful work, yet it is an extremely dangerous article—an apology for the false doctrine of premillennialism. This article has been sufficiently analyzed and exposed by Bro. B.C. Goodpasture, editor of the "Gospel Advocate" in the August 7th and August 14th issues of that paper. If you possess one of Davidson's tracts, we suggest that you also read Bro. Goodpasture's article. It will open your eyes.

BUSINESS MEETING NEXT SUNDAY

Make your plans now, men, to attend this meeting. Some important decisions are to be made and it is important that all attend this meeting. Don't forget the time--next Sunday immediately after the service.

Bro. A. P. Warner and family were back last Sunday after 10 days at the beach. They attended church services in Wilmington where Bro. Dave Hearn preaches. Herbert Harper also spent a few days at Carolina beach with Bobby and Leroy.

Herbert Harper and sister, Juanita, left Monday for a visit in Nashville. They made the trip with the Kaufmans who were on their way home in Nebraska. We enjoyed having the Kaufmans with us.

Word was received recently that the Kuykendalls are "papa" and "mama" the third time. It's a boy and was born August 5th.

Bro. and sis. H. F. Johnson of Gallatin, Tennessee were with us over last week end. We - especially the Johnsons - were glad to see them. Bro. Johnson is an elder in the church.

Yesterday morning the Johnsons and Gladys and Jim Harper left for a weeks vacation to Florida.

If faith produce no works, I see
That faith is not a living tree.
Thus faith and works together grow,
No separate life they e'er can know;
They're soul and body, hand and heart;
What God hath joined, let no man part.

PSALM FOR THE WEEK

Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed:

O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

Blessed is the man whom thou chooseth, and causeth to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation: who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:

Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains being girded with power:

Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: thou settlest the furrows thereof: thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof.

Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills rejoice on every side.

The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.
