LABOR DAY

Paul Kirkpatrick

Six days shall thou labor, and do all thy work: But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God . . . Exodus 20:9-10. God created the Sabbath so man would have a day to rest from working.

Does anyone know which holiday we will have tomorrow? Labor Day! Yes, that's right.

God made the heavens and the earth in six days, but on the seventh day he rested. He gave us one day out of seven as a day of rest. He did this so we would not get too tired or sick from working all the time. It is important for us to take time to rest. It gives us a time to thank Jesus for all He does for us. It gives our bodies a chance to rest, so that we can stay healthy.

Labor Day is a national Holiday that Congress initiated to honor the men and women who work every day in America. When they work, they earn money to support their families. They also pay taxes on that income. The money taken in taxes is used to pay for things that all Americans benefit from, such as protection, foreign representation, government jobs, roads, schools, bridges, etc.

Jesus talked about a spiritual rest that we can all enter into. "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light (Matthew 11:28-30).

When we meet together after judgment, our Labor Day Holiday will be an eternal one and we will find rest for our souls.

Where Your Treasure Is

Rick Woodall

In these life thoughts I often find myself reflecting back to the past. Looking back at the long ago is a remarkable thing. The previous can teach us many lessons. The former has molded us with its joys and merits. It has scolded us with its scars and sadness. Needless to say, all these previous memories make all of us unique and different. It would be a boring world if all of us were the same. It is wonderful to see people unite with the Lord by putting on His name, by being obedient to the Gospel message. Jesus can do so much through the human heart. I try to imagine what this world would be like without a Savior. We would all be so disoriented and miserable.

And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, "Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?" And Jesus said unto him, "Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God. Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother." And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth. Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, "One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me." And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions. - Mark 10:17-22

Thinking back at all the different possessions my parents gave me the greatest gift was love. It just goes to show if that is the important thing then everything else will fall into place. My gift reminds me that material things have a way of collapsing, fading or rusting. When we stand before God face-to-face and heart to heart, the real remedy for a happy life will finally be reality. The truth is this: the reality was already experienced in the hearts of people who knew where their treasure was. It is now continued though eternity.

GODS

What god will you be worshipping this Sunday?

1. The god of Ease? Had a hard week; gotta get some rest.
2. The god of Mammon? Gotta get another dollar.
3. The god of Popularity? Folks came; gotta stay with them
4. The god of Pleasure? Only day I have to play golf, fish, etc.
5. The god of Self-Pride? They don't do me right.
6. The God of Heaven? I love God and His Son and I will be in the assembly for worship even though it may be inconvenient.

Yes, we will each worship some god Sunday. It will prove interesting to know which god is yours. You may rest assured that the choice is yours and that this Lord's Day you will make that choice. In the interest of your soul, let us plead with you to choose the God of Heaven.
