W H E R E ?

- WHERE there is no rule:
There is confusion and decay.
- WHERE every one rules:
There is anarchy and disunion.
- WHERE the majority rule:
There is digression and politics.
- WHERE the minority rule:
There is oppression and politics.
- WHERE one elder rules:
There is dictatorship and destruction
- WHERE the eldership rules:
There is wisdom and scripturalness.
- WHERE the Christ rules:
There is love and salvation.
- WHERE the Spirit rules:
There is zeal and unity.

WEDNESDAY CLASS

Next Wednesday evening we begin another series of studies concerning characters of the Bible.

For the next three weeks the characters for study will be "ESTHER", "DANIEL" and "REHOBAM" and "JEROBOAM"

We hope you will attend these classes.

BE SURE AND COME BACK TONITE

N E W S

A large crowd attended both services Sunday. Two good lessons were brought before us by Bro. A. L. Rigney of Manchester, Tennessee.

Bro. Stewart is now in City Hospital. We know he would appreciate any visits.

Lloyd Wrights is confined to his bed with rheumatic fever.

Sister Pegram was back with us Sunday. We were glad to see her safely home.

BIBLE COMMITTED TO MEMORY

The best way to commit Scripture to memory is to practice it. A Korean once said to his missionary friend, "I can recite from memory the Sermon on the Mount", and he did it perfectly. "But," said the missionary, "we must not only commit God's Word to memory, we must practice it every day." Said the Korean, "Ah, that is how I learned it. I tried and tried and not a sentence would stick in my memory until I thought of memorizing one verse at a time and going out immediately to practice that verse upon a neighbor. That worked and that is how I committed to memory the whole of the Sermon on the Mount."

BOOKS, BAD

We are told by those who know, that books stored in a bookstore are exceedingly liable to be attacked by rats, who gnaw them for the sake of the paste contained in the binding. Sometimes, however, the highly colored covers owe their brilliancy to the use of poisonous dyes which prove fatal to the mischievous feasters. We wish this were the worst damage ever wrought by unwholesome literature. We fear that in too many books offered to public gaze there is a worse poison in the printed matter than in the bindings, and one that imperils the spiritual health and even the life of those who read. Look out for poison on the printed page!
