“ALL DAY MEDITATION”

Many times in our lives we find disappointment, heartache, confusion, sorrow, pain and hardship. I'm sure we could add more to the list. When we encounter these things we should turn to the Scriptures and turn to God in prayer. Oftentimes we look for comfort from a friend who will listen to us and sympathize with us as well. There is nothing wrong with that. We really do need to remember that we should listen to God when we seek His help or counsel.

But what does that mean – “Listen to God”? Some would say it's what your heart tells you to do. So, in effect, they're saying do what you feel is right. Others would say it's what your “head” has to say. In other words do what you think is reasonable. Still others will advise, “Don't do anything. Wait and see what develops.”

Listening to God means praying for wisdom and understanding. Sometimes strength is needed. The, reading His Word and thinking about what it really says and means. Next is to consider how to actually apply what we have prayed about, read about, and thought about. Then we must do it.

How do we begin? Psalm 119:97 says, “Oh how I love Your law! It is my meditation all day.”

ELDER'S CORNER:

Sharing the Gospel of Christ!

The elders are very excited to support a brand new work for us in Cusco, Peru. The city of Cusco is nestled high in the Andes Mountains of southeastern Peru. Home to approximately 500,000 people, Cusco is rich in history, culture, and geographic beauty, but lacking in the presence of the church. Very few New Testament Christians live Cusco today. As the historic capital of the Inca Empire, Cusco is now a gateway city.

This Peru work will be the first time that "one of our own" is an active, daily part of the mission. After 3 months of summer training in Dallas, TX, Ryan and Sarah Tesh Davis will be moving to Peru in the fall of 2014 for a 5-year commitment. The work in Peru began in 2010 through an effort of Freed-Hardeman alumni. Ryan and Sarah will be working with several other couples in Cusco. Since the original team arrived, there have been 60 baptisms and the establishment of the Ayllu church of Christ. The vision of the Cusco mission culminates in a specific exit strategy so that well-equipped Peruvian Christians may eventually assume the oversight of the congregation. Several Cusqueno men are already being trained in evangelism, worship, preaching and sound doctrine. Evangelizing this influential city could mean reaching countless numbers of people in the surrounding area. Cusco, Peru may provide future evangelism opportunities for the members of Warner's Chapel.

For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them. Ephesians 2:10

Next Sunday, March 30, the Warner's Chapel contribution will go toward this good work.

Ryan and Sarah appreciate your prayers and financial support for the Peru Mission. You may contact them at:
