NEW QUARTER ON THE HORIZON

If you are looking just past Christmas and into the new year, you will see that on Monday, January 8, 2024, the North Carolina School of Biblical Studies will begin its new quarter of school. I would like to encourage you to take advantage of the course offerings and the excellent instructors we have.

- Each weekday will begin at 9 a.m. with a 30 minute chapel including singing, prayer and a brief message by Mike, Bob or one of the students.
- Todd Hinson will be teaching the Life of Christ from the gospel accounts each Monday morning at 9:30.
- Tim Canup invites you to the church auditorium at 2 p.m. each Monday. Jeff and Jacques, and sometimes Bob, will be developing their preaching skills. Please, come out and encourage them to grow into great messengers of the gospel.
- Stephen Hughes, from Rutherfordton, will greatly grow your knowledge of the books of Numbers and Deuteronomy every Tuesday at 1:30 p.m.
- On Wednesday morning from 9:30 to 12:30, in a course called Gleanings, I will be leading a reading session that will eventually take us through the whole New Testament. We will stop along the way to discuss some points worth remembering. I hope you will join us.
- The historical books of Joshua, Judges and Ruth will be on the educational menu each Thursday morning from 9:30 to 12:30. Brother RD McDaniel from Corinth will lead that spiritual feast.

- From 1:30 to 4:30 on Thursday afternoons, Alan Martin from the Thomasville church, will be guiding us through the centuries of Church History with a special focus on the restoration period in America. If you have not studied the history of God's church lately, you will enjoy both the information and the enthusiasm with which Alan teaches.
- On Friday mornings, from 9 a.m. to noon, I will be helping the students in Hermeneutics, a high sounding word about the common sense subject of how to study and interpret the Bible.

Please plan to join us. Schedules are in the bulletin boxes.
