Am I Too Timid?

Before we realize it, a few weeks will pass, and Summer will be coming to an end. That reminds me of an observation made by the prophet Jeremiah. He said, “The harvest is past, The summer is ended, And we are not saved” (Jeremiah 8:20).

It could be that some of us have not been saved from our past sins, and others of us are not forgiven of our present sins. Furthermore, when Summer comes to an end, that might still be the case. So, here is my question: “Why would we delay when salvation is so available?” Why gamble with our eternal destiny when the certainty of Heaven is so accessible?

One answer to these questions is “timidity,” or being timid. Did you know that some people remain in their sins because they’re too timid to ask for help? And, there are some people still in their sins because we are too timid to initiate a conversation with them about their souls.

You see, timidity is not just experienced by those wanting to be evangelistic, but it is equally experienced by those who need to be saved. So, what’s the solution? Overcome our timidity! Friends, if you are not saved, overcome your timidity and ask someone for help and guidance. There are countless people here who would love the opportunity to answer your questions or point you to someone who can.

And to the saved, do not let your timidity keep you from saying what needs to be said to someone who needs salvation. You say you are an introvert and cannot overcome your timidity? Let me ask you, “Would you be willing to knock on your neighbor’s door and awaken them in the middle of the night if you saw flames and smoke billowing out of their house? Of course, you would, demonstrating that timidity can be overcome.

I will end this article in the way I began. Before we realize it, Summer will be over, and when it is, will we be saved? If we overcome our timidity, that answer could be “Yes!”

Remember the words of Paul to Timothy, “For God has not given us a spirit of timidity, but of power and love and discipline” (2 Timothy 1:7).
