THE DISCIPLINE OF DIFFICULTIES

One man, a golf enthusiast, was telling another man how hard it was, on a certain course, to drive the ball over a ditch that lay between the tee and the green. "Why don't they fill up the ditch?" asked the second man.

An old lady was watching a game of tennis, and saw how often the ball was driven against the net. "Why don't they take down the net?" she asked.

It is hard for many to comprehend the value of obstacles, of hazards, of hindrances. They cannot understand the joys of the chase. They never entered into the delight of overcoming.

If the time ever comes when all our ditches are filled up, all our nets taken down, life will be too tame to live. Let us praise God daily for the burdens in the way, face them cheerily, and over them with a shout!--A. R. Wells.

SEVEN MISTAKES OF PREMILLENNIALISTS

1. They separate the church and the kingdom. Matt. 16:18.
2. They confuse the coming of an angel with the return of Christ. Rev. 20:1.

3. They literalize Bible symbols and thus destroy symbolic beauty and significance.
4. They offer a fleshly, earthly program and reign for fleshly-minded people. John 18:36.
5. They set their affections on things of earth instead of heaven. Col. 3:2.
6. They aspire to rule over their fellows.
7. They divide the church over their wild speculations.

DIVINE DISCIPLINE

Sitting on a fallen tree trunk in the woods, I observed a large black ant crawl leisurely along. Interested in seeing what the insect would do I dropped a piece of cracker near it. The falling fragment scared the ant and it started away. I blocked its way with my finger. It started in another direction and again I blocked it, and finally succeeded in guiding it to the crumb, which it immediately seized and began to devour avidly. Doubtless that ant thought the blocking of its chosen path a great hardship. It may have been rebellious, wondering what that big creature was trying to do, whereas it was simply a move of a higher intelligence to guide it to something more beneficial than the end of its chosen path.

So oftentimes God intervenes and intercepts our advance on the "way that seemeth right unto us," in order that he may direct us to the heavenly manna for which he knows our souls are hungry. "Have thine own way, Lord, 'Tis best for me." is a prayer we need to offer.--Harold S. Laird.

"Half the wrecks upon life's ocean,
If some star had been their guide,
Might now be riding safely;
But they drifted with the tide."

Be sure and hear Brother Rigney again tonight.-----

PSALM FOR THE WEEK

Why boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually.

Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs; like a sharp razor working deceitfully.

Thou lovest evil more than good; and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah.

Thou lovest all devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue.

God shall likewise destroy thee forever, he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.

The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him:

Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.

I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it: and I will wait on thy name; for it is good before thy saints.

Psalm 52

WEDNESDAY EVENING

This Wednesday evening will be the last in our series on the first principles. The lesson for consideration is "Scriptural Baptism".

At that time we will decide on another series of lessons. Won't you come and study with us?
