CAROLINA LECTURES

The 66th Annual Carolina Lectures have come and gone. We were given several comments concerning the structure and schedule of the Lectures by many. Several were amazed at the practicality of offering a CD instead of a book. We were called “innovators” and “pioneers.” As I remarked, “to have over 70 attend a lecture at 9 a.m. on Saturday was quite amazing. It brings new confidence to the phrase, “If you host it, they will come.”

Neal Pollard did such a great job and was instrumental toward the success of the evening attendance.

There are so many people to thank that in listing each one I might miss someone so I will thank all who participated in this effort.

However, I must thank the elders for their vision and foresight in being willing to host this perennial opportunity to strengthen our brethren in the Carolinas. I can truly say that many commented on the timeliness and subject matter that was presented.

It was our combined efforts that enabled us to let our light shine. For that God will continue to bless us.

Paul

ELDERS CORNER:

FINDING TIME FOR THE BIBLE

Put a Bible under your pillow to read each night before you go to sleep.

Wake up ten minutes earlier each morning.

Turn off the TV at 8 p.m. each night and read to your children.

Read a few verses at mealtime when the family is together.

Talk less to have a few more minutes to read.

Keep a Bible in the kitchen, to read while waiting for food to cook or for water to boil, or near the phone, to read while on hold.

Carry a Bible in your purse or pocket, to read while waiting in line for doctors or when arriving early.

Take a Bible on trips and read on a plane or in a hotel.

Don't just own a Bible — read it.
