“THE HOT SEAT”

George Heflin believed in first things first and with him, work came first. His sons, Frank and Roy, were always working on Saturday afternoon while other boys got to go fishing and swimming, or in to town. One Friday night, after a really long hard day of working, George told his boys if their chores were done and they plowed a certain field of corn that Saturday; they could have the rest of the day off.

Frank and Roy were up a little before daybreak. They didn't stop for water and they didn't take a break. They had done their chores and were plowing the field by ten-thirty. With about three fourths of the field plowed, around twelve-thirty, one of the mules they were plowing with got tired and sat down on his hind legs. He refused to budge. Frank and Roy used up a bunch of switches but Windy wouldn't move.

Desperate, the boys built a fire under Windy and he got up in a hurry. But he walked about ten feet and sat down again. They built another fire and Windy moved again – and sat down again. Needless to say, the boys finished their plowing without Windy. Some folks are like that old mule; they need a fire built under them to get them going. Don't be like Windy, or you'll always be on the hot seat.

ELDERS CORNER

A Disciple of His

The decision has been made. I'm a disciple of His. I won't look back, let up, slow down, back away, or be still. My past is redeemed, my present makes sense, my future is hopeful.

I'm finished and I'm done with low living, sight walking, small planning, smooth knees, colorless dreams, tame visions, mundane talking, chintzy giving, and dwarf goals.

I no longer need preeminence, prosperity, position, promotion, platitudes, or popularity. I don't have to be right, first, tops, recognized, praised, regarded, or rewarded. I now live by His presence, learn by faith, walk by patience, lift by prayer, and labor by power.

My face is set. My gait is fast. My goal is Heaven. My road is narrow. My way is rough. My companions few. My God reliable. My mission clear.

I cannot be bought, compromised, returned, lured away, turned back, deluded, or delayed. I will not flinch in the face of sacrifice, hesitate in the presence of adversity, negotiate at the table of the enemy, ponder at the pool of popularity, or meander in the maze of mediocrity.

I won't give up, shut up, or let up until I have stayed up, stored up, prayed up, paid up, and preached up for the cause of Christ. I am a disciple of Jesus. I must go until He comes. Give till I drop. Preach till all know, and work till He stops me. And when He comes for His own, He'll have no problem recognizing me.

-Author Unknown

If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple - Luke 14:26

OUR SICK

Please Remember in your prayers

It was reported that Curtis Doss suffered a slight stroke this past Sunday afternoon. He is at home and reportedly doing well at this time.

Carmen Parker's husband, Charlie, recently had a pacemaker installed. If you wish to send a card to Charlie you can address it in c/o Drew Hendricks, 11201 NE State Road 121, Lake Butler, FL 32054. (Note: Charlie's birthday is Feb. 9th).

Nancy Minor's sister, Lori Spencer, underwent surgery last week. She is doing well and now at home recovering. Her husband, Fred, is at home at this time and doing better. He will return to the hospital in a few weeks to remove more cancer from his tongue.

Ashley Everett's father, Hank Wade, was recently diagnosed with bladder cancer. He will be undergoing surgery this month.

Kim Sheets has a lung infection and is on medication at this time. He is still able to work at this time.

Virginia Kee (Emily Workman's grandmother) had surgery on her recently in order to improve her sight. She continues to get results back on the tumor on the radiation that was recently completed. Thus far, it is believed there has been minimal growth but not much improvement either.

Assistance Needed

If anyone can go visit with Ralph Griffith, which would allow Carolyn to have time to do some necessary things outside the home, it would be greatly appreciated. If you are able to help, please call Sherrill Stewart.

The Prayer List is available on the credenza in the foyer.

*WORK PLAN BOOK

Please check the information on member's addresses and birthday listings on the desk in the foyer. If the information is correct, place a check mark beside the information—if incorrect, please make the necessary corrections.

This will be the last day to make changes for the directory or birthday listing.
