A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

November 9, 2008

“ARE YOU THIRSTY?”

The Amazon River is the largest river in the world. The mouth is ninety miles across. There is enough water in it to exceed the combined flow of the Mississippi, Nile, and Yangtze Rivers. So much water comes from the Amazon that its currents have been detected two hundred miles out into the Atlantic.

One irony of ancient navigation is that sailors in those times often died for lack of water ... caught in wilderness waters of the South American Atlantic. They were adrift, helpless and dying of thirst. Sometimes other ships from South America, who knew the area, would come alongside and call out, “What’s your problem?” The reply was, “Can you spare some water?” The answer would be, Just lower your buckets, you’re in the waters of the mighty Amazon River.”

The irony today is that Jesus Christ provides men with the water of life and yet they are dying of spiritual thirst because they don’t recognize Him. Come find out about Jesus Christ with us at the Warner’s Chapel church of Christ. Jesus can take care of your thirst.

—Frank

THE DAY AFTER....

The day after the election, regardless of who won, Jesus will still be King.

The day after the election, our responsibilities as Christians will not have changed.

The day after the election, the greatest agent for social change in America will still be winning the hearts and minds of men and women through the gospel, not legislation and lies.

The day after the election, regardless of who wins, my primary citizenship will still be in this order: (1) the Kingdom of God, (2) America, not vice-versa.

The day after the election, regardless of who won, the tomb will still be empty.

The day after the election, the cross, not government, will still be our salvation.

The day after the election, my neighbor will still be my neighbor, and loving him/her will still be the second greatest commandment. (Do you know the first?)

The day after the election, our children will still be more concerned with whether or not we spend time with them than with who is President.

The day after the election, the only way to see abortion ultimately overturned will still be winning men and women to a high view of life through the truth in the gospel of Christ.

The day after the election, the only way to see marriage is through a Biblical view of marriage through the gospel of Christ.

The day after the election, my future will still not match my treasure in Heaven.

The day after the election, “Jesus Is Lord” will still be the greatest truth in the Universe.

The day after the election, we will still know that God is in control.
