A NEW BEGINNING

Graduation is very pivotal moment in anyone's life. It is a feeling of freedom and accomplishment. It is a "rite of passage." To all those recently graduating I extend a hearty congratulations and best wishes in the future. It is my hope that you might view this time as a beginning not an ending and continue to serve our Lord by studying Scripture to continue to be approved of God. I offer these verses to encourage this.

Therefore, beloved, looking forward to these things, be diligent to be found by Him in peace, without spot and blameless; and consider that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation—as also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom given to him, has written to you, as also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to understand, which untaught and unstable people twist to their own destruction, as they do also the rest of the Scriptures. You therefore, beloved, since you know this beforehand, beware lest you also fall from your own steadfastness, being led away with the error of the wicked; but grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory both now and forever. Amen. (2 Pe 3:14-18 )

ELDERS CORNER:

POTENTIAL ELDER'S PRAYER

Prayer is a major part of an elder's work of protecting the flock of God. He knows that he will need God's help in protecting the church. Imagine if you will this prayer a potential elder may offer to the God of heaven before he accepts the marvelous work of elder. It may go something like this: "Holy Father, thank you for helping me meet the 30 qualifications found in your word. Father, thank You for helping me understand the qualifications. Father, help me to continue to meet the qualifications, that I might serve you faithfully as long as I am able. Thank you Holy Father for the confidence the congregation has in me to serve them. I know Father that you want me to continue to desire this good work, knowing that I must continue to be qualified. Father, I will try with all my being to avoid sin. If I sin, I will bring forth fruit worthy of repentance, so that I can be blameless. I thank you Holy Father for my faithful wife and believing children and their confidence in me to rule our home well according to Your word. Help me to be vigilant and watch for false teachers and those who would harm the church. Father, help me to be sober-minded that I will make sound judgments. Father, may I always show hospitality to all, knowing I may be entertaining angels. Holy Father may I always be willing to teach anyone both publicly and privately Your marvelous gospel. Father, may I always desire to be among good men, not with brawlers or those who drink alcoholic beverage and use illegal drugs. Holy Father, may I never be greedy or love money, knowing that the love of money causes all kinds of evil. May I never be covetous, knowing that it is a terrible sin. Father, may I always keep my financial affairs in order, in our home as well as in the church, knowing that I must have a good reputation in and out of the church. Father, may I always be fair, patient and mild, and never prejudiced in my judgments. Father, may I never be self-willed, never demanding that my way is always right and respecting the decisions of others, especially in elder decisions. Father I know that I am not perfect but help me to be more like Jesus each day, knowing that one day I will stand before You and give an account of how I protected Your church. I love You Father and desire to serve You faithfully all my days and be with You forever. Holy Father, help me be a faithful elder, In Jesus name, Amen." Who in their right mind would not want to be submissive to an elder with this attitude? This example was given to the preachers in India, in the leadership seminar.
