ATTENTION

What would happen if we should announce that Sunday evening services were being discontinued? The congregation would be in an uproar! and it should be..... yet, by our absence we cast our vote to not have Sunday evening services. Some of those who talk the most about wanting to have a large, active congregation attend only the Sunday morning (sometimes not even then) service. It makes leaders of a congregation doubt the sincerity of some members.

Too, it is discouraging to the preacher to speak to a house full of empty seats. Especially, when he knows of those who could be in the audience if they really wanted to be and loved the Lord as they should.

Honestly, friends, do you want to go to heaven or not? Christianity is a serious and whole-hearted life of service unto God. Too many of us are merely "playing like Christians" instead of being genuine Christians.

The religion of Christ is a religion of soberness of thought, of calm and fixed purpose and determination. Man must enter wholeheartedly in order to succeed. Won't you be at the service tonight?

WHEN NO ONE IS WATCHING

A flower blooms no more sweetly because it is gazed at by an admiring crowd. It would be just as lovely if it grew in the depths of a great forest where no eye ever saw it. The stars look down with as much brilliance into the desert with no one to look up at them, as into the streets of the great city where thousands behold them. The sea does break with as much majesty on an uninhabited shore as where its waves kiss the feet of multitudes.

So it is in all true Christian life and work. When one is doing any fine thing, and shows by his air that he is conscious of it, more than half the fineness is gone from the performance.

When a man knows that he is living a life that is very beautiful in its service and sacrifice, when he is conscious that he is a winsome Christian, much of the glory is gone from his life.

We should live just as sweetly and beautifully when no one is looking to see our deed and praise our life as when the whole world is beholding.

The eye of God is ever upon us, and it is his approval and commendation that we should always seek to deserve.

Some one has aptly said that there is no end to the good that we can do provided we don't care whether or not someone else knows of it.

FRIDAY CLASS OPEN TO ALL

In view of the fact that the study which the young men are taking up this coming Friday night would be beneficial for all church members, it was decided to make this class a general one for a time. The subject for discussion is "Rules for Bible Study". We believe that if you will attend this course you will find your Bible study more profitable. Will you be with us then? Be sure to bring paper and pencil!

IF YOU HAVE NOTICED

That we do not sponser carnivals, bazaars, orchestras, dances, etc., in order to raise money for the church, it is because we believe such practices are wrong and unnecessary. Where do you find a mention of such practices in the New Testament? There is no mention of such in God's Word. Why is it necessary for religious groups around us to resort to such methods to "raise money"? It is because the members of such groups do not have enough confidence in their religion to give as the Bible teaches. So, in order to "keep the church going" the leaders think they can get the necessary funds by resorting to unscriptural practices. The Bible tells us to give as we are prospered. This will be sufficient to do all the work which the Lord commands.

PSALM FOR THE WEEK

O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is; to see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary. Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee. Thus will I bless thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name. My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips: when I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches. Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice. My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me. But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth. They shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes. But the king shall rejoice in God: every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

Psalm 63.
