A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

“Commit, Committed, Commitment”

What does it mean to commit? Does it mean to pledge to do something with the intent to carry out a certain idea, action or cause? Does it mean to make every effort to support an idea, action or cause? Does it mean to actually “do something”; as in to commit a crime or commit to memory?

What does it mean to be committed? Does it mean to be dedicated to an idea, action or cause? Does it mean to put a certain idea, action or cause before everything else? Is it an action we take or one that is taken by others concerning us as in being committed to an asylum?

What does commitment mean? Is it that obligation to carry out a certain idea, action or cause? Is it the diligence to carry out a certain idea, action or cause?

You may have your own ideas about commit, committed and commitment and that's fine. But for this moment I would ask you to consider your soul as you read 2 Timothy 2:12 “... for I know Him whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that He is able to guard that which I have committed unto Him against that day.”

ELDERS CORNER:

Empty!

by Steve Higginbotham

This past week, a friend of mine — whose name I will not mention — had some car trouble more than 500 miles from his home. If you've ever been in that situation, it is certainly disconcerting to say the least. What do you do? Who do you call? How much will it cost? All these questions rush through your mind. In my friend's case, it was just a matter of putting gas in the gas tank. Unfortunately he had already had to pay a tow truck — now do you see why he will remain nameless?

In his defense, he ran out of gas while his gas gauge was showing that he still had a quarter of a tank of fuel remaining. Of course, I couldn't help but see a spiritual application in this event.

How many people do you suppose are trusting in a "fallible gauge"? How many people do you think are being told they're alright, but their "spiritual tank" is actually empty?

I do know that on the day of judgment that there will be some who stand before Christ who will be surprised that they are not saved. (Matthew 7:21-23)

To avoid such a fate, we must trust in the only "gauge" that will never fail and never mislead us ... the word of God.

Friends, spend time in God's word so that you can make your calling and election sure.

So, dear brothers and sisters, work hard to prove that you really are among those God has called and chosen. Doing this, you will never stumble or fall away.

For you know that God paid a ransom to save you from the empty life you inherited from your ancestors. And the ransom he paid was not mere gold or silver. He paid for you with the precious lifeblood of Christ, the sinless, spotless Lamb of God. (2 Peter 1:10; 1 Peter 1:18-19 NLT)

A Note from the Desk of Tina Love School Social Worker

Dear Warners Chapel Church of Christ:

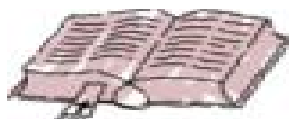

On behalf of Yadkin County Schools I would like to personally thank you for the generous amount of hygiene items you have donated. It was greatly appreciated and will go a long way in helping families in need. It's so nice to have items on hand to give families.

Thank you again and May God Bless You All!

Sincerely,
Tina M. Love, BSW
School Social Worker
