“SMALL POTATOES”

Years ago Chinese farmers theorized they could eat their big potatoes and keep the small potatoes for seed. They put the theory into practice and after so many years nature had reduced all their potatoes to the size of marbles. Through bitter experience they learned that they could not have the best things of life for themselves and use the leftovers for seed.

The law of harvest says, “you reap what you sow.” In another sense, planting small potatoes is still a common practice for a lot of folks. We take the big things of life for ourselves and plant the leftovers. Do we really expect that by some crazy twist of spiritual laws our selfishness will be rewarded with unselfishness? We can’t eat the big potatoes and have them too. What size potatoes have you been planting spritually? The Bible says, “Be not deceived God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that shall he also reap.” Galatians 6:7

—Frank

Elders Corner:

Christianity has been under attack by groups such as the ACLU and other special interest groups. The desire of these groups is to remove all reference to God from our society. Their basis for accomplishing this is a misinterpretation of the US Constitution.

Beginning Wednesday evening February 18th. and continuing for five weeks, we will be viewing a seminar recorded on DVD titled (The Silencing Of God). This seminar discusses "The Dismantling of America's Christian Heritage." This same study will be conducted on Tuesday evenings beginning February 17th. at 7 PM. The Tuesday evening classes are offered so the churches in the Clemmons and Lewisville area could be invited to come on a night they do not have services at their churches. Our members also can use this opportunity to invite friends and family that could not come on Wednesday evenings.

Some of the questions answered in this seminar are:

Did the Founding Fathers...

- Advocate separation of church and state?
- Reject expressions of Christianity in government and public school?
- Intend for federal institutions to be religiously neutral?
- Approve of same-sex marriage?

Letters have been sent to area churches inviting them. Flyers are available in the foyer for you to use in inviting your friends and family to see this presentation.
