CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

Many of us rack our brains time after time trying to find out just what to give so-and-so for a Christmas present. If you have not finished your shopping, here is a suggestion:

Bro. Rufus Ketner, a member of the Church, is in the Tuberculosis Hospital at Winston-Salem. Having time on his hands, he has taken up the making of all kinds of leather goods; belts, ladies pocket-books, men's bill-folds, etc. The workmanship is excellent; one cannot tell them from those bought in many of the stores. He also makes beautiful vanity sets.

If you anticipate the giving of such a gift, why not contact Bro. Ketner by writing him at Box 992, Winston-Salem or through Bro. Johnson. In so doing you would be doing the "double-barreled" job of encouraging Bro. Ketner and pleasing a friend.

We are very glad to hear that Sister Walter Harper is getting along so well after her recent operation. She is now at her home.

NEWS

We were glad to have Betty Lee Moser and Mr. & Mrs. C. C. Kiger with us as visitors last Lord's Day Morning. We invite them to visit us again.

We are very grateful for the good lesson, so ably presented by Bro. Hixson of Winston-Salem last Sunday Morning. It would be well for all of us to remember the admonition given us from Luke 19.

.....Dot Holder..

MISSISSIPPI TRIP

The Johnsons returned Wednesday afternoon from their trip to Tennessee and Mississippi. Last Lord's Day Bro. Johnson preached at Utica, at 11:00 a.m.; at Midway at 3:00 p.m. and at the Central congregation in Jackson; Mississippi at 7:30 p.m. Two were baptized at this service.

TULIPS

Tulips are being planted on each side of walkway in the cemetery. We wish to thank Asidley Phillips for staking off the way and planting the bulbs already obtained.

Anyone wishing to donate bulbs, but do not have time to plant them, see Sister James. She will be very glad to plant them for you.

GOSPEL ADVOCATE SUBSCRIBERS

Last week Bro. Johnson received a letter from Bro. B. C. Goodpasture, editor of the Advocate. Bro. Goodpasture wanted to express his thanks to those who formed a club of subscribers. He asserted that he would always be glad to assist in any way in the selection of literature and books. Feel free to call on him.

E Z R A

This week we will study the book of Ezra in our Wednesday Evening Bible Study Class. The story in this Book is an interesting one. Won't you study it with us? Please come!

The subject tonight:--FROM SUCH TURN AWAY.
