»CONSCIENCE«

"And Paul earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day." (Acts 23:1). "I verily thought with my self that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them." (Acts 26:9-10).

"Conscience is the creature of education; the heathen is conscientious, but he doesn't know the right way."

Dependable Evidence

"And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." (Jno. 8:32).

Truth is the Word of God

"Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth." (Jno. 17:17).

All Must Be Taught

"No man can come to me, except the Father which has sent me draw him and I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father cometh unto me. Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father." (Jno 6:44-46).

"Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls. But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: For he beholdeth himself and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was." (James 1:21-24).

"But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." (Matt. 4:4).

Conclusion

Hearing and believing the Word of God are those things that develop a safe conscience.
