A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

“SENT FORTH WITH THE POWER OF GOD”

I Corinthians 1:18 says, “For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.” Perhaps you have a favorite preacher, or maybe there is certain sermon that has stayed with you for a long time in your memory. While men may think the gospel is foolishness, we need to respect and hold in high esteem, those who prepare themselves to proclaim the “foolishness of God.”

Three men graduated yesterday who have decided that they want to be a part of that body of men who carry the good news of Jesus Christ to a lost and dying world. Graduating with them were two women who have a hunger and thirst for God’s Word. One is a preacher’s wife who has determined to stand with her husband in the work of the Lord. The other is one who determined that she needed to be better versed in God’s word to do what she can for the furtherance of the kingdom.

In today’s “lost and dying world” it takes just as courage to mention Jesus to those around us as it ever has. Our five graduates have stayed the course in completing their studies of God’s Word at the North Carolina School of Biblical Studies. Not all will stand in the pulpit, but all will be able to stand in the truth of the Scriptures.

You helped in making it possible for these five souls to become stronger soldiers of the cross. The unseen benefits will continue long after we have left this earthly existence. It is with humility, and yes, a little bit of pride that we send them forth with the message of the cross, the power of God.

— Frank

Prayer

*Arguments never settle things, but prayer changes things.

*A person who takes time for prayer will find time for all the other things needing his attention.

*When it seems hardest to pray, we should pray the hardest.

*Too much of prayer is asking instead of thanking.

*Prayer is measured by its depth, not its length.
