"It Could Cost You an Arm and a Leg"

In George Washington's day there were no cameras or "smart phones." One's image was either sculpted or painted. Some paintings of Washington show him standing behind a desk with one arm behind his back while others show both arms and both legs.

Prices charged by painters were not based on how many people were to be painted but by how many limbs were to be painted. Arms and legs are "limbs" so painting them would cost the buyer more. Hence, the expression, "Okay, but it will cost you an arm and a leg."

The Bible says, "And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and cast it from you: for it is more profitable for you that one of your members perish than for your whole body to be cast into hell." Matthew 5:30.

The point being — if something causes you to sin, rather than lose your soul, cast it off or withdraw from that which causes you to sin. It would do better to do without it in this life than to suffer eternal punishment in the next. Remaining in sin will cost a person much more than an arm or leg — it will cost them their soul!

HOW DO YOU START EACH DAY?

SUNDAY MORNING: Time to go to worship, have fellowship with the saints, be uplifted, praise and glorify God, OR too tired to go, must go, but dread it, dutifully put in our one hour during worship, even if we do sleep through it or wish we were elsewhere? Is it bliss or blah"s?

MONDAY MORNING: Great to get back to work, earn a living, do an honest days work and be helpful to others, OR go back to work with drudgery, a week-end hangover, arrive late, make excuses, do as little as we can get by with? Is it blessing or blues?

TUESDAY MORNING: Back in the groove, great to have a job, love what you do, look for more doors of opportunity, OR continue in the grind, hate what you do, complain because of work conditions, complain because of little opportunity to rise in the ranks? Is it opportunity or treadmill?

WEDNESDAY MORNING: Midweek assessment, much done, much more to do, great outlook for success, looking for more good prospects, OR half over, might make it to Friday, little done and hopefully not too much more pressed on you, few good prospects? Is it Half started or half finished?

THURSDAY MORNING: Enjoy working, following up on good leads, satisfied with week so far, still looking for doors of opportunity, OR only one day left, frantically trying to catch up on what you haven't finished, hoping no more work comes your way? Is it contentment or stress?

FRIDAY MORNING: It's been a good week, truly satisfied with what you've done, looking forward to well earned week-end rest, thinking of more doors of opportunity next week, OR thank God it's Friday, can't wait till another miserable week is over, dread to think of next Monday? Is it satisfaction or Whew?

SATURDAY MORNING: Time with the family, time to get some week-end odd jobs done, looking forward to tomorrow and starting another week worshipping God, OR forget everything but self, leave me alone, laze around and do nothing, don't even think about Monday, plan same for Sunday? Is it a time of refreshing or withdrawal?

GOOD MORNING EVERYONE, "THIS IS THE DAY WHICH THE LORD HATH MADE; WE WILL REJOICE AND BE GLAD IN IT." (PS 118:24)

"For Jesus' sake" - 2 Cr 4:11

My Brother's Faults

In speaking of a person's faults,
Pray don't forget your own
Remember those with homes of glass
Should seldom throw a stone.
If we have nothing else to do
Than talk of those who sin,
Tis better we commence at home,
