HOUSE STAKED OUT

Last Monday at 1:10 p.m. work actually begun on the new house. Bros. E. L. Harper, J. W. Warner, T. L. Moser, W. P. Messick and Johnson staked off the house and blazed trees to be removed.

Bro. Clarence Sheets is to begin work on the basement Saturday, the weather permitting.

ATTENDANCE BACK UP

It was encouraging to see the building near full again last Sunday after the bad weather had kept many away for 2 or 3 Sundays. The evening attendance was also back up as 53 occupied pews. Will you help us have more, Sunday night?

BITS OF NEWS

T. I. Cartwright and wife, Gordon and Pauline Harrison were visitors with us Feb. 8th. Jim Harper also missed services that day because of the flu. We were glad to have the former Lois Jean Moser and her husband with us last Sunday.

HOW TRUE!

When you sing "Sweet Hour of Prayer" on Sunday morning and miss prayer meeting on Wednesday night, won't it be hard to convince people you were singing with the spirit and the understanding?

PARABLE OF THE PIG

A rich man said to his minister, "Why is it that everybody is always criticizing me for being miserly when everybody knows that I have made provisions to leave everything I possess to charity when I die?"

"Let me tell you a story about a pig and a cow," the minister replied. "The pig was lamenting his lack of popularity. He complained to the cow that people were always talking about the cow's gentleness and kind eyes. He admitted that the cow gave milk and cream, but maintained that pigs gave bacon and ham, lard and pickled feet. He demanded the reason for such lack of appreciation. The cow thought awhile and said "Maybe it is because I give while I'm still living!"

BUILDING FUND

Though the crowd was unusually small because of the weather, our contribution to the building fund for Feb. 8th was $81.51. This shows that we are behind the undertaking. The fifth Sunday - next Sunday - has also been set aside as a day in which the contribution will be placed in the building fund... Let us all do our very best and see just what we can do. The bigger our contributions, the sooner it will be paid for.

BIBLE STUDY

One can never accomplish anything going about it in a haphazard or unsystematic way. I think that no one will dispute this fact.

In gaining Biblical knowledge this same idea--systematic study--is necessary. The Church here has two systematic courses of study each week which are separate and apart from the regular Lord's Day worship service. One of these courses is given at 10:00 a.m. on Sundays, and the other at 7:30 Wednesday evening.

The Sunday morning course for this quarter is entitled, "Early History of Israel". The Wednesday night class is entitled simply, "The Church". There are classes for all ages and are led by capable teachers.

These classes are scriptural, interesting and profitable. If you do not attend these classes you are missing a great opportunity of growing spiritually.

Jesus said "If ye love me keep my commandments." Jno. 14:15. One of his commandments is "Study to show thyself approved unto God...". Though there are other ways and times to study, we still are of the opinion that this is one of the very best. Won't you prove this for yourself by attending these classes beginning Sunday?
