A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

If Nothing Sticks to Teflon, How Do they Get Teflon To Stick To The Pan?

That's one of those questions that they say should be left up to the experts. Maybe it's a trade secret. It really doesn't bother me if I don't know the answer to that question. There are other questions that are more important.

Being a Colon Cancer survivor, I have often wondered why I came out with such a good outcome and others do not. I guess there are a number of variables that enter in to that equation (age, general health, expertise of the surgeon, approach to a cure, etc.). Now, I am not "out of the woods" yet. We will be continuing to have scans on a six-month basis to spot possible tumors, but I am not thinking about that. I will deal with whatever comes my way.

Have you ever thought that all of us are dying or are going to die? Some may have their life shortened by tragedy some by disease or some may live well into their nineties or hundreds. Who knows? Just deal with whatever comes our way and don't worry about the length of our lives. No matter what lies ahead for us all, we need to be prepared for judgment.

By the way, if the title of this article perplexes you, just buy stainless steel.

—Paul

ELDERS CORNER:

TROUBLES

“Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, Believe also in me.” (John 14:1)

Often this beloved and familiar quotation is used as a message of comfort and solace to those in grief; but what of the troubles both little and big which come to Christ’s children daily? Literally thousands of little irritating troubles come compared with the infrequent overwhelming griefs to which this Scriptural admonition is usually applied.

The little troubles are really those which test us most. We take our big troubles to Him in prayer, but often time allow little troubles to completely disconcert us. Many a Christian’s influence is sadly compromised by his irritability, his impatience, and his intolerance in the home and in the office. They are the “little foxes, that spoil the vineyards.” (Song of Solomon 2:15)

The measure of a Christian’s real character is his reaction to little troubles; for life is made up, not of great sacrifices and arduous tasks, but of little things, in which thoughtful consideration, a sense of humor, magnanimity of spirit exemplified in forgiveness, preserve and foster the serenity of character which Jesus desired for us when He said, “Let not your heart be troubled.”
