A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

THESE THINGS

Peter wrote, "he who lacks these things is shortsighted (2 Peter 1:9)." Concerning the same thing Peter said, "If you do these things you will never stumble" (2 Peter 1:10).

What are "these things" that Peter is talking about? They are those things that you must give all diligence to add to your faith (2 Peter 1:5). They are those things that enable you to be fruitful in your service to God (2 Peter 1:8). They are those things in which you must abound (2 Peter 1:8).

More specifically, what are "these things" Peter is speaking about? They are the seven qualities listed in 2 Peter 1:5-7 that all Christians ought to work hard to have, and work hard to grow in. They are sometimes referred to as "the Christian virtues."

Give all diligence to add these things to your life:

1. Virtue
2. Knowledge
3. Self-Control
4. Perseverance
5. Godliness
6. Brotherly Love
7. Agape Love

Once you have added these things to your life, then give all diligence to abound, grow, and mature in these things. "For if you do these things you will never stumble" (2 Peter 1:10).
