YOU ARE WELCOME AT OUR SERVICES

BROTHER MCDONALD TO SPEAK HERE:

Brother Gary McDonald who preaches for the church in Ashboro will be here next Sunday morning to speak to us, while Brother Beard will be in Ashboro.

He will report on the work in Ashboro. As you know, Warner's Chapel helps in Brother McDonald's support, so we should be especially interested in his labors. Everyone come and bring a visitor.

HOW'S THAT AGAIN?

"YOU take care of every day-- let the calendar take care of the years." Ed Wynn.

"The best time to give advice is when looking in a mirror."

"Children left to grow up like weeds are not likely to produce the flowers of genius."

"Charity may begin at home, but it shouldn't end there."

NEWS and NOTES

The first meeting of the Men's Training Class and Ladies Bible Class took place Tuesday evening at 7:30 with only fair-to-poor attendance. There were nine ladies, eight men and six children present. Brethren, with our membership we should have much more than this! As the weather becomes more agreeable we are looking for better crowds.

"Good Works" will be the subject of the Ladies study Tuesday evening. Those of you with children will be interested to know that the nursery is situated so that if it is necessary to take the children there, you still can see and hear the lesson. So come and bring the children.

We in the men's training class will be discussing "Stage Fright-What it is and What to do About it". Valuable training in the carrying on of the public worship can be had here. All the male members of the congregation are urged to attend the rest of these classes.

We believe that you will find these study groups both interesting and beneficial. Is it fair of us to ask one and a half hours of your time per week to build you and the church up in the most holy faith? We believe so.

We wish to urge all teachers to remember the monthly teachers meetings at the preacher's home. Although the attendance has been pretty good so far, we need 100% attendance of all teachers, substitutes and interested persons. We are trying to improve the teaching program of the church, but to do this, we must have full co-operation from the teachers. Next meeting: ~~Saturday~~ ^{Saturday}, 7:30 p.m.

Note to parents: In order for your child to get the most good out of his Bible School lesson, why not study with him at home? By doing this, you will greatly aid his teacher. He will also realize the importance of studying the Bible.

Our appreciation to Brother Landreth for clearing the parking lots Tuesday. It's a pity that Wednesday's snow "undid" much of his hard work.

We still need speakers for Lexington this month. If you would like to help, please see Brother Beard soon.

The Carolina Lectures are only seven weeks away. The South Main congregation asks us to help supply lodging and food for the noon meals. So far only Sister Edna Binkley has volunteered to help with the food and no one (except the Beards*) has announced his willingness to keep some of the guests. Let us not dissappoint the South Main church.

MAN'S LIFE

Man's life means

Tender teens,
Teachable twenties,
Tireless thirties,
Firey forties,
Forcible fifties,
Serious sixties,
Sacred seventies,
Aching eighties,
Shortening breath,
Death,
The sod,
GOD.

GOLDEN TEXT

Mark 9:1--

"Verily I say unto you, There are some here of them that stand by, who shall in no wise taste of death, till they see the kingdom come with power."

The Great Command

A lawyer once asked Jesus a question trying to ensnare him: "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?" Jesus replied without a moment's hesitation, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second like unto it is this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." (Matt. 22:35-39.) Note the order in which Jesus places these commandments--God first, man second. It must be thus always. May God be first in our thoughts, our conversation, our deeds; only in this way can we be of real service to our fellow man.
