ROAD RANTS

Carla and I are at the Northwest church of Christ in Greensboro today and High Point tonight. We have been feeling the effects of road weariness lately. Last week we drove 500 miles to go to Pike Road church of Christ. They are a congregation of about 100 attendants on Sunday morning and currently support 5 preaching school students and 3 missionaries. They provide about 10% of support for Terry Dow.

It is highly important that we send representatives to these congregations who either support us financially or are prospective ones. Communication is the lifeblood of support. When we go there we show our appreciation for their generosity and encourage them to continue that support for future students. If we want them to continue to be interested in us we must show our interest in them.

Next month we will be in Mechanicsville, VA, Charlotte, NC, Parkersburg, WV, and Hickory, NC. Keep us in your thoughts and in your prayers as we travel.

—Paul

ELDERS CORNER:

THE INDESTRUCTIBLE WORD

Many have tried to destroy the Bible. In A.D. 303, the Roman emperor Diocletian issued an edict to destroy Christians and their Bibles. Over a burned Bible, he built a monument on which he wrote these words, Extincto memene Christianorum (the name Christian is extinguished). Twenty years later, Diocletian was dead and the new Emperor Constantine commissioned fifty copies of the Bible to be prepared at government expense.

In 1776 Voltaire, the French philosopher, announced. “One hundred years from my day, there will not be a Bible in the earth except one that is looked upon by some antique seeker.” One hundred years later, Voltaire was dead and his own house and press were being used to print and store Bibles by the Geneva Bible Society. One hundred years from the day of Voltaire’s prediction, the first edition of his works sold for eleven cents in Paris, but the British government paid the Czar of Russia half a million dollars for an ancient Bible manuscript.

God’s Word shall stand forever. “Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away” (Matthew 24:35).

THE PASSING OF BRAD JONES

Brad Jones (7 yr. old who was at Duke with Meredith Everett for treatment) passed away recently. If you would like to send a sympathy card, the address is Mr. & Mrs. David Jones, 31 McCloud Lane, Newland, NC 28657.

CLOTHING DONATION

In an effort to show the communities of Lewisville and Clemmons the love of Warners Chapel, the young adult class is organizing a clothing give away. The class is asking the members of Warners to donate new or gently used clothing items. Please make sure the items are clean and NOT in need of repair. If possible, please label each item by taping a size to the outer left side. Please place your donated items in the foyer of the building (clothing for adults as well as children). Donations will be accepted until November 12th.
