NO BULLETIN FOR THE NEXT TWO WEEKS:

Bro. Isaacs will be away for the next two weeks at the Carolina lectures and to hold a meeting in Salisbury. In view of this, there will be no bulletin for the next two weeks. Please notice carefully, in another section of this bulletin, the appointments for the next few Sundays.

SYMPATHY:

We extend to the family of Bro. Harvey Kimel our heartfelt sympathy in the passing of his brother, Mr. Russel Kimel. Mr. Kimel died Sunday in a local hospital and was buried Tuesday afternoon. Services were conducted at Advent Moravian Church. May God comfort those that are bereaved!

SICK:

Aunt Lizzie Warner is still in the City Hospital. She continues about the same.

Aunt Lillie Warner is still unable to be out.

Sis. Carrie Barkley is still confined to bed.

Sister Ida Pogram remains in critical condition in Baptist Hospital. It was reported that she fell last week and hurt herself.

Aunt "Cooch" Warner was not able to be with us last Sunday.

Sister Kate Mabe is at home now after her operation.

Little Debbie Sheets has been quite sick for the last few days.

Also Marcia Doub has been sick. This is the reason Harold & Metzel have been coming to services in shifts.

I hope I have not overlooked anyone!

ALBEMARLE:

The Landreths, Paul Mosers, Jim Harpers, Odell Holders, Barkers, Headens, Hiatts, Tom Binkleys and the preacher made the trip to Albemarle Tues. evening. Thanks folks for supporting this meeting with your presence!
