Antichrist

After watching a history channel production of the same name, I found it interesting that the name "Antichrist" was deemed synonymous with the beast of Revelation. There is no correlation between the two found in Scripture. John's letters are the only place that such a term as "antichrist" is found. Many assume that the beast and antichrist are the same.

John tells us that there are many antichrists [plural] that are already in the world.

Obviously, the term "antichrist" does not refer to just one individual, but to several. Maybe the answer can be found in 1 John 2:7 where John identifies antichrist; For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. So John gives the criteria for antichrist, i.e. one that does not confess that Jesus has come into the world.

John was confronting Gnosticism, (a belief that Jesus did not come in the flesh but only came in spirit form) that had invaded the Church. He was warning those who held this belief that they were of the spirit of antichrist [And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world. 1 John 4:3].

Though there are few Gnostics today there are many who are anti-Christ. Anti-Christ would translate as against Christ, in opposition to Christ or contrary to Christ. Sadly, there are many who fit this description today.

Paul

ELDERS CORNER:

YOU HAVE MADE NCSBS POSSIBLE

Without the support of the members of Warners Chapel Church of Christ, we could not have graduated our first class of students, and we now have another group on the way to achieving this goal. Your support is evident through your encouraging words to our students and prayers that are prayed remembering all the efforts of our students and faculty.

There have been so many who have helped in so many ways. Many of you have given sacrificially of your financial means so our students could support themselves and their families while they prepare themselves to preach the gospel. In addition many have helped prepare meals which have been greatly appreciated and enjoyed by students and staff as well. Others have helped by providing clerical, accounting, and secretarial help. Also, many have donated books, furniture and equipment for the school to use.

The elders have designated that the fifth Sunday contribution on January 31 will be given to the scholarship fund. As this important work continues, the need for this fund to be replenished continues as well. Please consider this need as you plan your contribution for that Sunday.

Also, Paul Kirkpatrick and Joe Everett will be taking our school display to the Freed-Hardeman Lectureship in February to help make others aware of the school here. While they are there there will be opportunities to purchase more books for the library from vendors there. If you would like to contribute to this effort you can place that contribution in an envelope with library fund on the envelope and place in the contribution during the month of January.

Matthew 28:19-20

"Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, [even] to the end of the age."

Thanks again for all you do to meet the command in the verses above
