“TELL ME WHERE THOU HAST LAID HIM”

The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre. Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him. Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre. So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre. And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in. Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie, And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed. For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead. Then the disciples went away again unto their own home. But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre, and seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. And they said unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? Whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master. Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her. Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord. Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

ELDERS CORNER:

Jack Simons preached at Warners Chapel from February 1984 until August 1994. We are excited to have Jack return to us in May as the guest speaker for the Senior Rally. In honor of that and his service to Warners Chapel, the bulletin articles this month will be items that he contributed during his time with us. This week we focus on representative items from the "Simons' Simple Sermon of the Week"....

It is more difficult to maintain a beautiful HOME than a beautiful HOUSE, but far more important. - June 16, 1991

The real tragedy is not so much the noise of the wicked, as it is the silence of the righteous. - December 13, 1992

Life is like a cafeteria: One goes through choosing as he goes, but what he chooses must be paid for at the end of the line. - October 27, 1991.

Happiness does not depend on how things are about us, rather it depends on how things are within us! - January 5, 1992

It's one thing to "go to church", and this we must do, however; it is another to have one's name written in the book of life! - January 19, 1992

Those who find pleasure in wickedness won't be happy long! - November 14, 1993

The door to the kingdom of God is not open to those who keep their Bible shut. - May 30, 1993

We don't really give anything to God, we just return a portion of that He has loaned to us. - December 2, 1990

If you are through changing, you are through. - February 4, 1990

Peace of mind is enhanced when we are able to remember what we should remember, and forget what we should forget. - May 2, 1993

GODS

What god will you be worshipping this Sunday:

1. The god of Ease? Had a hard week; gotta get some rest.
2. The god of Mammon? Gotta get another dollar.
3. The god of Popularity? Folks came; gotta stay with them.
4. The god of Pleasure? Only day I have to play golf, fish, etc.
5. The god of Self-Pride? They don't do me right.
6. The God of Heaven: I love God and His Son and I will be in the assembly for worship even though it may be inconvenient.

Yes, we will each worship some god Sunday. It will prove interesting to know which god is yours. You may rest assured that the choice is yours and that this Lord's day you will make that choice. In the interest of your soul, let us plead with you to choose the God of Heaven.
