“TEACH US TO NUMBER OUR DAYS”

We are familiar with the old adage of how time flies. It is not always the case that time flies because you are having fun. As we get older however, the phrase seems to take on a more relevant application. We reach different milestones in aging and it seems the more of those milestones we pass, the faster time flies. In reality we know that certain elements of time are the same for young and old alike. But the older we get the more we understand just how short our lives really are.

Job said, “My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle.” (Job 7:6) A weaver’s shuttle is “a device containing a reel or spool of the woof thread, used in weaving to carry the thread back and forth between the warp threads, which moves rapidly.” James wrote that life is “It is even a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away.” (James 4:14b) So with that in mind we need to realize that life is too short for us to deliberately pass by the opportunities for joy and enrichment that come our way.

Life is too short to neglect friendships. Life is too short to entertain bad attitudes. Life is too short to refuse the opportunities to do good for others. Life is too short to neglect opportunities for spiritual enrichment. Life is too short to not obey the Gospel. Life is too short because you never know when it will

Life is too short. “So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.” (Psalms 90:12)

ELDERS CORNER:

Thank You

I would like in behalf the congregations in Bocas del Toro, to say thanks to the church of Christ at Warners Chapel for the generosity in given us the money to buy boat and motor for the mission work in Bocas, I am so fortunate to be working with Christians who love the Lord's work. We are doing our best every day in doing the good work and as long we have people like you supporting the Lord's work, we will reach to more people in our country with the precious gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Thank you Warners Chapel.

Alfonso

HAVE YOU QUIT THE CHURCH?

Someone called to inquire if he wanted his name listed in the new church directory as a member of the local congregation, or had he quit?

“No, I haven’t quit the church; I just haven’t been coming to services lately”, was the reply.

It may be to the point to ask, “If I want to quit the church, just what would I have to do in addition to quit coming to the services?” Remember, the word translated church is also at other times rendered “assembly” or “congregation”. If I willingly forsake the assemblies of the church, haven’t I quit the church? If not, why not?

If a man quits coming home, quits contributing to his home, quits supporting his home, both attentively, financially, and morally, has he not quit his home? Have you quit the church?
