WHO PROFITS MOST?

Who profits most?

'Tis not the man

Who, grasping every coin he can

Unscrupulously crushes down

His weaker neighbor with a frown.

He is not worthy of his trust,

And, friendless, knows his gold is dust.

He loses what he sought to gain

And finds, instead of pleasure, pain.

Who profits most?

It is not he

Who shirks responsibility.

Who, hermit-like, himself withdraws

To live apart from human flaws.

To scoff at mortal frailties.

He turns away, no vision sees

Of life's great opportunity.

He is not mourned—why should he be?

Who profits most?

It is the man

Who gives a boost where e'er he can,

Who's on the square in all that's done,

And trusts and helps the others on;

Who puts his task above mere self

And values friends and counts them wealth.
Who profits most? Is that your quest?
"It is the man who serves the best."

NEWS

We were glad to have the following visitors with us Sunday morning:

Mr. and Mrs. Burl Blevins and daughter, Janet, of Elizabethtown, Tennessee. Miss Charlie Binkley of Eunice, New Mexico. Mrs. Phillip Livengood, Miss Betty Jean Sheets, Harold and Howard Sheets, all of Winston-Salem. We extend to them a cordial welcome any time they can be with us.

Everyone was happy to see Gladys and Jim Harper back with us after taking a trip to Florida. They reported a most interesting and pleasant trip. They had an enjoyable visit with Mr. & Mrs. Blackman while in Jacksonville and Bro. & Sister W. W. Tynes and family, in Bradenton. Sunday, August 24th, they attended the church at Jacksonville and the following Wednesday evening they attended services at the church at Bradenton. We missed you, folks, and are very glad to have you back.

Metzel and Harold Doub, Dot Holder, Helen Warner and Gladys and Jim Harper attended the services last Sunday Evening at Central Church of Christ in Winston-Salem.

IN WHAT ARE YOU TRUSTING?

Trust in yourself, and you are doomed to disappointment
Trust in your friends, and they will die and leave you;
Trust in money, and you may have it taken from you;
Trust in reputation, and some slanderous tongue may blast it; but
Trust in God, and you are never to be confounded in time or eternity.

It's not what one gains,
But what he gives
That measures the worth
Of the life he lives.
