“A PLACE TO GET WELL”

Have you ever heard of a man who preferred to drown rather than get into a boat with a hypocrite? Or, a woman who quit going to the movies because the theater manager didn't speak to her? Or someone who always quit the second day of a job because they made a mistake on the first day? Or someone who never did anything about an illness because he wasn't interested in the subject? Or someone who refused to eat because they couldn't understand how it gave them physical strength? Or someone who never made a promise to anyone because they were afraid they couldn't hold out? Or someone who scorned an invitation to have an audience with the President of the United States because they would have to give up some of their “friends.”

You might have heard of one or two of those things in the world, but you know, you hear about it quite often in the religious world. The church is for sinners what a hospital is for the sick. It's a place to get well. Do you need to recover from sin? Perhaps you might come to the Warner's Chapel church of Christ and learn the remedy.

—Frank

ELDERS CORNER:

I ASKED GOD...

I asked God why I wasn't rich. He showed me a man with the wealth of a thousand kings, who was lonely, and had no one to share it with.

I asked God why I wasn't beautiful. He showed me a woman more beautiful than any other, who was ugly because of her vanity.

I asked God why He'd allowed me to become old. He showed me a boy of 16, who lay dead at the scene of a car accident.

I asked God why I didn't have a bigger house. He showed me a family of six who had just been evicted from their tiny shack, and had to live on the street.

I asked God why I had to work. He showed me a man who couldn't find a decent job because he'd never learned to read.

I asked God why I wasn't more popular. He showed me a socialite with a thousand friends, who all left the moment the money and parties were gone.

I asked God why I wasn't smarter. He showed me a natural-born genius, serving life in prison for making ill use of his knowledge.

I asked God why He put up with a thankless sinner like me. He showed me His Bible. He showed me His Son.

“Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God” - Psalms 42:11.
