"Where Do I Find...?"

Those words will be spoken often between now and December 31st. People will be asking sales clerks for directions to the place in the store for that perfect gift, or something for the person who has everything. After December 25th it will be for where the "returns" are taken or where exchanges are made. There will even be sales held after the gift-buying frenzy of the items people brought back to exchange.

Is there anything wrong with gift-giving? No. In fact giving a gift is often a thoughtful way to express kindness, appreciation, friendship and even love.

But the most important gift a person can give is the gift of self. If time is really an expression of how much we care about someone then think how precious your faithful obedience to God is. There is nothing that even comes close in value than your soul. Think about what it means for your loved-ones for you to become a Christian and remain a faithful Christian.

It is up to you to give yourself to Jesus. If you do, you will receive far more than you can ever give in return. That's because God gave the most wondrous gift of all – His only begotten Son. One might ask, "Where do I find this most precious gift?" They will find it in the Word of God. "How do I obtain this gift?" Believe that Jesus is the Son of God, John 8:24-29. Repent of all your sins, Luke 13:1-5. Confess Christ before men, Romans 10:9-10. Be baptized for the forgiveness of your sins, Acts 22:16. Live a faithful Christian life, Revelation 2:10. That's where you will find the greatest gift.

ELDER'S CORNER:

748 Kernels of Corn

I was reading a book on personal work recently and the author told a story about the power of one person making a difference. He said that one day, while eating corn on the cob he decided he would count every single kernel of corn. When he was finished, he had counted 374 kernels. He must have never been taught not to play with his food.

The author went on to observe how that this ear of corn came off of a stalk that may have produced other ears of corn. Let's say just two in total. If the other ear of corn had the same number of kernels as this one, then that would be a total of 748 kernels of corn. While impressive, what's even more amazing is that those 748 kernels of corn came from a single kernel planted, watered, and tended to until it reached maturity and was ready to be harvested.

Personal work is a lot like that. You may convert only one person over the course of your life. It could be that you feel your life is a failure because you didn't "turn out the numbers" that someone else did. You may not baptize thousands like the late Marshall Keeble. However, you may convert one soul that will convert 748.

Jesus said to "go into all the world and preach the Gospel" (Mk. 16:15-16). The world before you to teach begins with "one." It's time to get busy.
