JESUS IS LORD AND KING

When Jesus Christ lived on this earth He taught with authority (Matthew 7:28-29). Before He left to go back into heaven, Jesus said, “All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth” (Matthew 28:18). As Peter preached on the day of Pentecost he preached about the authority of Jesus as King, Lord, and Christ (Acts 2:29-36).

Paul emphasized the authority of Jesus Christ in writing to the church at Colosse (Colossians 1:14-18). He summed up this discussion by saying Jesus has preeminence in all things (Colossians 1:18). 1 Corinthians 15:24-28 shows us Jesus Christ is reigning now as King and that He has authority over all except God the Father. Numerous other Scripture references to Jesus as King or as Lord provide overwhelming evidence of His authority.

Jesus is Lord and King over your life whether you know it or not. He has authority over you whether or not you accept that authority. You can choose to submit to that authority or remain in rebellion against His authority, but you cannot choose whether or not He is Lord and King. God made that choice and gave Jesus Christ that authority (Matthew 28:18; 1 Corinthians 15:27; 1 Corinthians 11:3).

Many individuals are too arrogant to submit to the authority of Jesus Christ (James 4:6, 10). Submission to authority requires humility (Philippians 2:1-11). The person that refuses to accept the evidence regarding the Divine nature of Jesus Christ is in rebellion to Jesus. The person that claims to follow Jesus, but then makes Christianity into what he wants it to be rather than what Jesus wants it to be is in rebellion to Jesus. The one who disregards Jesus’ authority over the church (Ephesians 1:22-23) shows disrespect to the bride of Christ (Ephesians 5:23-33).

Every individual on this earth is subject to the authority of Jesus Christ. He is the King and Lord of all. Most will refuse to accept His authority and rebel against Him, but that does not diminish His authority. The reality of authority of Jesus over the lives of all may be denied, but the reality of it cannot be changed. Jesus is the Lord and King of all people from the weak to the mighty. Even powerful national world leaders are subject to the authority of Jesus. Even they should humble themselves before the Lord, but few will. God gives them that choice. The Lord even allows for that choice. However, the Lord and King will judge all people, great and small, when He returns to this earth (Acts 17:30-31). Every knee shall one day bow before the Lord, and every tongue shall one day confess that Jesus Christ is Lord (Philippians 2:9-11). We shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ and give an account of ourselves (Romans 15:10-13).

Jesus is Lord and King over your life whether you accept His authority or not. Live in rebellion toward Him and face the penalty at the judgment. The Bible teaches there is coming a day when Jesus shall be “revealed from heaven with His mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. These shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power” (2 Thessalonians 1:8-9). Live in humble service to Him and enjoy the reward at the judgment. Jesus “the King will say to those on His right hand, ‘Come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world’ ” (Matthew 25:34).

A Podcast to Reach the Lost

The November issue of House to House encourages your community to watch or listen to the podcast “The Authentic Christian”. The podcast is an attractive and gentle presentation of the gospel that is professionally produced. These brothers spend a lot of their week studying with contacts generated by the show and their studies often lead to several baptisms a week. (The November issue will be shipped about mid-November).

“JUST YOU”

There used to be a saying that was fairly popular years ago. It went like this: “Ya’ know what this world needs? I’ll tell ya’ what this world needs. This world needs...” and then whatever the person thought the world needed would proceed to tell his listeners. Well, let me tell you. You know what this world needs?

This world needs people who cannot be bought; whose word is their bond; who put character above wealth; who are larger than their vocations; who do not hesitate to risk rejection; who will not lose their identity in a crowd; who will be honest in small things as in great things; who will make no compromise with wrong; whose ambitions are not confined to their own selfish desires; who will not do something because everybody else is doing it; who are true to their friends through good report and evil report; in adversity as well as prosperity; who do not believe that shrewdness and cunning are the best qualities for winning success, who are not ashamed to stand for truth when it’s unpopular; who can say “no” with emphasis although the rest of the world says “yes.”

The world doesn't need every person in the congregation at Warners Chapel to be this way —Just you.
