A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

MAY 20, 2012

THE BRIGHTEST AND BEST LIFE HAS TO OFFER

Perhaps your mail box has been or is beginning to fill up with invitations to graduations. As young people graduate they face a future that ought to be as bright as the sun. Some are going to be leaving the comfort and security of the home for the first time. Others will be facing the leaving behind of friends and familiar faces. Some will be entering the job market looking for employment in a time when jobs are not so abundant. All will face the uncertainties that exist within the world.

How will they meet the future? Hopefully these suggestions will be of help.

- 1. Have confidence: Psalm 37: 3 says "Trust in the Lord." Confidence begins with Him.*
- 2. Be committed: verse 5 says, "Commit your way to the Lord." His way provides eternal rewards.*
- 3. Be careful: verse 4 says, "Delight yourself also in the Lord." His joy offers sympathy and comfort.*
- 4. Be brave: verse 1 says, "Do not fret because of evil doers." In Christ we can be bold because God is in control.*
- 5. Be a Christian: Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, the life." John 14:16.*

Here's wishing all the graduates the brightest and best life has to offer.

SUMMER INTERN

Autobiography

My name is Jonathan Davis. I'm 20 years old, and I'm a junior at Freed-Hardeman University. I'm from Tullahoma, Tennessee, and have lived there for the last 15 years. My father, Philip, and my mother, Rebecca, work with the Grundy Street congregation in Tullahoma where my father serves as minister. I have one older brother, Ryan, who works in Nashville, Tennessee, as a Financial Advisor with Edward Jones and works with the college-aged group at the Crieve Hall congregation in Nashville. In school, I am double majoring in Bible and Finance. At Freed, I'm a member of the Chi Beta Chi social club where I will be serving as a Makin' Music Director for next year. On campus, I work for the Office of Admissions through the Campus Delegate Team. My favorite experience at Freed was the semester I got to study abroad in Europe last fall. My favorite sport is gymnastics - I took lessons from age 8-18 and taught lessons for three years. I'm excited about working with all of you for the summer and am so thankful for the opportunity to be with Warners Chapel.
