A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

December 13, 2009

“BE THOU AN EXAMPLE...”

Paul said, “Let no one despise your youth, but be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity. (1 Timothy 4:12).

Our young people are not only the church of today and tomorrow but they are also like treasure. One can only imagine the amount of good that will come from the diligent efforts of our young people. I have received accolades from those in other churches that have taken special notice of our young folks and we need to do everything that we can to encourage them.

One such special mention must be made about Holly Hauser. Someone told me a story about Holly and I confirmed the details this past Wednesday. Holly goes to a religious denominational school. During class this past week she participated in a debate in which she presented biblical material that even her teacher could not refute. So much so that her teacher asked the headmaster of the school to participate in the debate opposing Holly! Having to defend one's faith in such a manner must have made her as nervous as if one were to face a firing squad! However, she persevered and even received condolences from her fellow classmates; sympathizing with her for her dedication and conviction “under fire.”

We encourage our young men to stand in the pulpit and proclaim the truth. It is highly important that our young women are adequately prepared to stand for the truth as well. Thanks Holly for standing up for the Lord and his church. Let's all let Holly know how we feel.

Paul

ELDERS CORNER:

The graduates at the “Zambia School of Biblical Studies” were asked to write a one-page paper about themselves and their plans when they return home. This is the first of several the elders want to share with you.

Dear Sir;

I am Russell Jalabani from Kabwe, specifically Mwash Church of Christ. I am single student who is planning to get married. I was born in the family of eight. Our first born died two years ago while my immediate brother passed away this year on January 27, 2009. Right now I am considered as the first born son of which all my young sisters and brother are looking for me as the elder. My parents are members of the Lord's Church though no so strong.

While at my local congregation, I play different kinds of activities due to the fact that the church has no qualified leaders to carry out the duties. For this reason, I am involved in preaching and also in teaching Bible classes both to the youth and the whole congregation at large.

I believe when I get back home I will continue in these areas though I will face some problems because I am not married, but this does not discourage me to do God's work.

Thank you very much,
yours in Christ
Russell Jalabani
