A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

GOD IS...

What do the following people have in common:

A baseball umpire
A Supreme Court judge
A football referee
Christians

This seems like a difficult list to try and find a common denominator to but each of these people is expected to be fair. An umpire or a referee who treats one team differently from another may not provide an important game-winning or losing decision fairly. A judge is to be impartial in rendering a decision between two parties. We are quite clear when it comes to these figures of authority, so why is it different when it comes to our brethren and those in the world.

James [2:1-9] creates a scenario wherein an example of partiality is provided. My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons. For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment; And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool: Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts? Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him? But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats? Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called? If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well: But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

God loves us all and expects us to treat one another fairly in every regard. We love him because he first loved us.
