A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

“LESS AND LESS – MORE AND MORE”

As a person gets older the things that amuse, challenge and interest him change. Most of the time it's a gradual change and many of the things that matter, well, they matter less and less. The apostle Paul used this idea in writing about the miraculous gifts as they began to be needed and used less and less, 1 Corinthians 13:11.

Have you noticed how the shows on television have gotten to the point where a Christian can't watch them because of the language, sexual content and shameful treatment of Christian values? Have you found yourself watching television less and less? Are you looking for a way to fill that time with better things more and more? I think I might have a solution for you.

After the holidays in the latter part of January a new quarter of classes will begin at the North Carolina School of Biblical Studies. The Thursday night class will be “The Life of Christ”. You can take the class for credit or audit it. Either way, the cost is zero. You might buy a textbook but the value of the course far outweighs the cost.

If you dedicate the time that it takes to really study and learn you will find that those wasted hours before the television become less and less and your Bible knowledge and time spent in God's Word will become, well, you know,

ELDER'S CORNER:

DO YOU EVER FEEL LONELY?

Do you ever feel lonely, even when you're in a crowd?
Do you ever have a sense of being rejected and unloved, inferior and unimportant, as though you have nothing to offer others.

Each of us need to feel loved. Clinical experiments have demonstrated that serious problems can be traced to a lack of love in the early life of an individual. As we grow older, we develop defenses for ourselves when we are feeling unloved and rejected. But we never lose the need to be loved; we never become comfortable with rejection.

You are important to the Almighty God who created heaven and earth. "For God so loved the world . . ." "Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us . . ." No one can look at the cross of Christ through the eye of faith and feel that he or she is unloved!

Friends may disappoint you; family members may turn on you, someone you think loves you may just be using you. But there is a secure, divine love which cannot fail. God loves you, and his love can be depended on in every situation of life.

If you know Him, you need never feel lonely again.

"What a friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer!
O what peace we often forfeit,
O what needless pain we bear,
All because we do not carry
Everything to God in prayer!"
