KIDS SAY...

Art Linkletter wrote a book entitled, Kids Say The Darndest Things. Kids have questions that challenge us. “Do I have to eat these peas?”

Children also have questions for us that can sometimes catch us off guard especially if they’re religious questions. Here is one that is sometimes tough to answer.

Why did people in the Bible give their children weird names?

*So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son. And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel. And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel. And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name Loruhamah: for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; but I will utterly take them away. But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen. Now when she had weaned Loruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son. Then said God, Call his name Loammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God. (Hosea 1:3-9)

In ancient times, especially among Jewish people, names had a special meaning. Sometimes God told prophets to give their children special names. In Hosea’s case the name of his children depicted a change in the relationship between God and Israel.

We should always be ready to give an answer (1Peter 3:15).
