LOGIC AND THE HOLY SPIRIT

The entire nature of the Bible rejects and condemns the situation ethics advocating, subjective approach to truth believing, liberal thinking, emerging church promoting, self-elevating, sin-justifying, language deconstructing, post-modern twenty-first century man. The perfect, inescapable and penetrating logic of the Holy Spirit is found throughout the New Testament epistles. For example: In Romans there is a thesis (Romans 1:16) and eleven chapters devoted to supporting that thesis. In Hebrews there is a thesis (Hebrews 2:1-4) and twelve chapters giving solid facts to prove the thesis. In 1 John you will find razor-sharp, cut to the heart teaching concerning the nature of truth, along with strong development and evidence building for every point made.

The Holy Spirit guided inspired men to write concerning the importance of using reason (logic) to determine the truth and decide a course of action. Consider the approach of the wise and godly prophet Samuel who said, “Now therefore, stand still, that I may reason with you before the LORD . . .” (1 Samuel 12:7). Notice the appeal of God to His wicked and rebellious people as He said, “Come now, and let us reason together . . .” (Isaiah 1:18). See the apostle Paul’s approach to preaching through the use of logic and reason (Acts 17:2, 18:4, 19; 24:25).

The New Testament as a whole is the standard and authority for Christianity. Therefore, it is the pattern for Christian living, doctrine, and worship. Paul said, “But God be thanked that though you were slaves of sin, yet you obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine to which you were delivered. And having been set free from sin you became slaves of righteousness.” (Romans 6:17) Timothy the evangelist was given the command to “Hold fast to the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which are in Christ Jesus.” 2 Timothy 1:13). The New Testament is the sound and solid pattern upon which we find unity with God and Christians. Paul wrote, “Now I plead with you, brethren, that you all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.” (1 Corinthians 1:10).

Preachers of the Gospel must respect that fact that all that is contained within the Bible is truth. Preachers must love the entire word of God and be willing to preach the whole truth. Psalm 119:151 says, “all your commandments are truth,” and verse 160 of the same chapter records, “The entirety of Your word is truth, and every one of your righteous judgments endures forever.” Paul told the elders from the church at Ephesus, “I kept back nothing that was helpful, but proclaimed it to you ...” (Acts 20:20). He told those same elders “I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all men. For I have not shunned to this day that I am innocent of the blood of all men. For I have not shunned to declare to you the whole counsel of God” (Acts 20:26-27). All Scripture is given by inspiration of God and therefore all truth relating to a particular matter as it is revealed in the Scriptures must be taken into consideration (2 Timothy 3). Taking the whole counsel of God on a particular matter is simply following the example of Jesus as He examined all the Scriptures relating to the Messiah when teaching the two disciples on the road to Emmaus (Luke 24:25-27).

The Jews of ancient times followed the dictates of their own evil hearts (Jeremiah 7:24). Because each one wanted to follow his own evil heart, no one wanted to listen to God (Jeremiah 6:12-13). Even with the threat of imminent punishment, the Jews refused to follow God rather than their own evil hearts so God destroyed them (Jeremiah 17:11-17). The sixth century. B.C. emergent, liberal, post-modern, deconstructionists of Jeremiah’s day rejected the word of God and paid a terrible price. The situation ethics advocating, subjective approach to truth believing, liberal thinking, emerging church promoting, self-elevating, sin-justifying, language deconstructing, post-modern twenty-first century man will pay a terrible price on the day of judgment if he does not repent. Let us hope he repents.

TO ALL FAITHFUL MEMBERS OF THE LORD’S CHURCH

Much of our writing, preaching, teaching and visiting is directed to the weak and unfaithful. This article is not addressed to members of the church who have to be begged, petted and pampered to attend the services of the church or to get involved with one of the opportunities to serve. This article is not written to or for those who grumble the most while doing the least.

Rather, this is for the faithful. There are not enough words to let you know how much you are appreciated. It doesn’t matter how many meetings are called, you will be present. Neither weather nor company will keep you from your fulfilling your responsibilities. Thank you!

You refuse to let the attractions of the world cause you to forsake the worship assemblies. You make whatever sacrifices you have to make, even though you have no more time than others. Thank you!

When good programs are put before the church, no one wonders what your response will be. They know you will successfully complete whatever assignment you are given. Thank you!

You don’t flirt with sin or see how worldly you can become without completely falling away from the Lord and His church. Neither do you demand special attention or praise for your service. Thank you!

Thank you for being a good example to the youngest members and an inspiration to the oldest. You make the work of the elders, preachers, deacons and Bible class teachers much easier.

Thank you for being what the Bible describes as a Christian. You are appreciated more than you know. Keep up the good work. (1 Corinthians 15:58)
